Geography. The Soviet Union is the world's largest country. It covers more than one-third of the world's land area. It is bordered by 16 countries and has a coastline of 17,520 miles. It is the only country in the world that has a coastline on both the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. It is also the only country in the world that has a coastline on both the Arctic and Indian Oceans.

Population. The Soviet Union has a population of 243 million people. It is the second most populous country in the world, after China.

Economy. The Soviet Union has a highly developed economy. It is a major producer of oil, gas, and other minerals. It is also a major producer of grain, steel, and other manufactured goods.

Political System and Foreign Affairs. The Soviet Union is a one-party state. The Communist Party of the Soviet Union is the only legal political party. The party is led by the General Secretary, who is the most powerful person in the country. The Soviet Union has a long history of foreign intervention. It has been involved in many wars and conflicts, including the Russian Revolution, the Russian Civil War, and the Soviet-Afghan War.

Science and Technology. The Soviet Union has made significant contributions to science and technology. It was the first country to launch a satellite into space. It was also the first country to land a man on the moon.

Culture. The Soviet Union has a rich and diverse culture. It has many famous writers, artists, and scientists. It is also a major center of international trade and commerce.

Notes on Russian History

These illustrations have been prepared to illustrate the history of the Soviet Union. They are intended to be used in conjunction with the map and the text. They are not intended to be used as a substitute for the map and the text.
