worsening of relations with the East the Yugoslav leadership quickly turned to their former class enemies For the United States it presented an opportunity to acquire many unexpected political benefits Yugoslav alienation from the Kremlin provided territorial consolidation of the southern flank of NATO denial of direct approach to the Adriatic Sea and Northern Italy to Soviet troops and dealt a strong political blow to the homogeneity of the Eastern bloc While not insisting on changing the ideological nature of Yugoslav state the United States provided much needed material and financial aid developing the base for entering into sphere of military cooperation It had two main categories direct support for Yugoslav forces through shipments of military equipment as well as Yugoslavia entering into defensive military alliance the Balkan Pact with Greece and Turkey already full members of NATO Such trends aiming towards closer Yugoslav bonding with Western military and political structures ended in the mid 1950s with Stalin s death the outbreak of the Trieste crisis and Tito s reconciliation with Soviet leadership Developing the new policy of non alignment with either of the confronting blocs Yugoslavia stepped out from the program of Western military aid while the Balkan Pact slowly faded in growing animosity between Greece and Turkey
