Rescue the Perishing! Ingrid Otto, 1984      Ecunews, 1989      The Magician Who Sold God Ambrose T Mpofu, 2014-09-25 The Magician who sold God is about a young man born into poverty In an effort to make a better life for himself far away from home he finds himself in a worse situation than he ever imagined Tragic events lead to him becoming a very talented man of God and a very rich man The power he commands as the leader of a church build on greed and deception soon bring the chickens home to roost      A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa South African Institute of Race Relations, 1978      In God's Hands Desmond Tutu, 2015-02-17 In God's Hands is the 2015 Archbishop of Canterbury's Lent Book It is a meditation on the infinite love of God and the infinite value of the human individual Not only are we in God's hands says Desmond Tutu our names are engraved on the palms of God's hands Throughout an often turbulent life Archbishop Tutu has fought for justice and against oppression and prejudice As we learn in this book what has driven him forward is an unshakeable belief that human beings are created in the image of God and are infinitely valuable Each one of us is a God carrier a tabernacle a sanctuary of the Divine Trinity God loves us not because we are loveable but because he first loved us And this turns our values upside down In this sense the Gospel is the most radical thing imaginable It is extremely moving that in this book Archbishop Tutu returns to something so simple and so profound after a life in which he has been involved in political social and ethical issues that have seemed to be so very complex      The Dixie Medicine Man Christian John Makgala, 2010-06-03 Leroy a white medical doctor from Mississippi leaves America and stays in the village of Morwa Botswana at the height of the world wide euphoria caused by America's moon landing He becomes a popular community crusader and a reputable traditional doctor Epic friction ensues as Jealousman a territorial village luminary feels upstaged by Leroy Leroy's relationships with Jealousman other locals and visitors to Morwa provide endless opportunities for laughter and food for thought Events transpire that will teach you a great deal about Botswana and her special people The descriptions in this book will keep you reading right until the very end and the end itself will leave you crying for a continuation of the saga      The Boy Trevor Herron, 2014-05-27 The Boy is a fictionalized version of how one thirteen year old child makes a difference in changing the face of apartheid in South Africa In 1976 Jonah Moloi stands up to the new law making Afrikaans the official language taught in schools This language was considered the language of the white oppressors The children's decisive action eventually brought about the end of apartheid Jonah becomes the living symbol for equality and freedom The novel follows Jonah as he leads the children through a hail of police bullets leaving behind an efficient protest system before he is forced to flee The Boy And a Child Shall Lead Them will resonate with readers who believe in justice and shows how one person can make a difference Trevor Herron was born in South Africa and lived there through the Apartheid era He immigrated with his family to Australia in 1998 I am white Afrikaans and English I am as much a part of the black groups be they Zulu Xhosa Tswana Sotho or any of the tribes of my beloved country or be they of Malay or Indian descent Their history is my history and all have suffered and all have been victorious In short I am South African I ve written this story in the hope that the Rainbow Nation as South Africa has become known will become a bright shining nation of one hue only That there will not be black and white English and Afrikaans Zulu Xhosa Tswana or Indian That we will become a proud nation of South Africans able to look racism and hatred in the eye and stare it down Publisher s website <http://sbpra.com/TrevorHerron>
