

Scandinavian Spa

The Scandinavian style is seen throughout this mood board due to the simplicity of the overall design and features. There are two many types of Scandinavian style that include the Swedish Gustavian country style, as well as the Scandinavian mid-century style. This particular mood board follows the mid-century style that has clean lines and an elegant finish. Elements that reflect the Scandinavian style are the muted colours (neutral tones), light wood furniture, and plants. The colour 60/40/10 rule is portrayed within this mood board as the white and beige tones are the dominate colours, the brown, natural tones are the secondary colours, and the green in the plants being the accent colour. The space being within the same colour scheme can create coolness, but the wood accents help to bring warmth and comfort to the space. Natural lighting and the use of focused pendent lights also help to add warmth. Maximum use of storage should be used in order to reduce the potential of clutter. All of these elements work together to create a calm and clean space.
