Written Space in the Latin West, 200 BC to AD 300 Gareth Sears,Peter Keegan,Ray Laurence,2013-07-18 This volume explores the creation of written spaces through the accretion of monumental inscriptions and non official graffiti in the Latin speaking West between c 200 BC and AD 300 The shift to an epigraphic culture demonstrates new mentalities regarding the use of language the relationship between local elites and the population and between local elites and the imperial power The creation of both official and non official inscriptions is one of the most recognisable facets of the Roman city The chapters of this book consider why urban populations created these written spaces and how these spaces in turn affected those urban civilisations They also examine how these inscriptions interacted to create written spaces that could inculcate a sense of Roman ness into urban populations whilst also acting as a means of differentiating communities from each other The volume includes new approaches to the study of political entities social institutions graffiti and painting and the differing trajectories of written spaces in the cities of Roman Africa Italy Spain and Gaul

Gladiators at Pompeii Luciana Jacobelli, 2003 The ruins of Pompeii reveal more graphically than anywhere else in the Roman world the vital role that gladiators and gladiatorial combat played in society The Vesuvian eruption not only sealed the oldest amphitheatre to survive from antiquity but also grafitti elaborate weaponry stone monuments and paintings which all testify to the popularity of gladiators several of which are known to us by name In addition the discovery of a training barracks allows us to locate physically the place of gladiators in the city This book now available in English translation presents the evidence from Pompeii in full colour photographs accompanied by reconstruction drawings and an informative text that takes us through the streets of Pompeii as the gladiators would have known it

Commodus O. Hekster, 2021-11-15 The emperor Commodus AD 180 192 has commonly been portrayed as an insane madman whose reign marked the beginning of the end of the Roman Empire Indeed the main point of criticism on his father Marcus Aurelius is that he appointed his son as his successor Especially Commodus behaviour as a gladiator and the way he represented himself with divine attributes especially those of Hercules are often used as evidence for the emperor s presumed madness However this political biography will apply modern interpretations of the spectacles in the arena and of the imperial cult to Commodus reign It will focus on the dissemination and reception of imperial images and suggest that there was a method in Commodus madness
