Gewirtz,2022-11-01 When I was a boy I told my mother I wanted to become a rabbi on a motorcycle This was a joke in our family for many years As a young man despite my love of Israel and a strong spiritual and cultural connection to Judaism I would not have believed that my own childhood prediction would become a reality And yet for over twenty five years I have served large synagogue congregations and shepherded hundreds of families through unspeakable tragedy unfettered joy and complicated times in our country s history This book is a reflection on where I came from and how I got to my current place as the Senior Rabbi of a Temple B nai Jeshurun of Short Hills NJ Not only have I grown and changed professionally from my early days of rabbinical school but my philosophy on how to lead a community and how to bring people together during trying times has evolved over many years of trial and error My hope is to inspire other clergy and people in general to find a way to help their communities thrive even during our current climate of fractured politics and overt hostility among one another
