Constitutions of the Countries of the World: Spain Albert P. Blaustein,Gisbert H. Flanz,1974      Economic Relations Between Nazi Germany and Franco's Spain Christian Leitz,1996 This is the first comprehensive study of the economic relationship between Nazi Germany and Franco s Spain between the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War and the end of the Second World War It demonstrates how during the Spanish Civil War Hitler helped General Franco to victory but at the same time attempted to turn Spain into an economic colony      A New Century of Corporatism? Sebastian Royo,2002-05-30 Royo examines how national level social bargaining was established in Portugal and Spain during the last two decades despite unpropitious institutional and structural conditions He argues that this development was the result of the reorientation of the strategies of the social actors With their support for these macro economic agreements labor unions sought to participate in labor and economic reforms and avoid the implementation of unilateral policies on the part of governments while mitigating the decline in their bargaining power at the workplace level In addition Royo contends that a process of institutional learning and increasing autonomy by unions from political parties particularly in Spain have further enhanced social dialogue and led the social actors to conclude that previous confrontational strategies were detrimental to the interests of their constituencies and threatened their own survival Royo claims that the emergence of new institutions to promote tripartite social bargaining in both countries resulted in the institutionalization of the bargaining process and contributed to a transformation in the pattern of industrial relations Of particular interest to scholars and researchers involved with Iberian politics labor and political economy      Science, Culture and National Identity in Francoist Spain, 1939-1959 Marició Janué i Miret,Albert Presas i Puig,2021-04-24 This book examines the role that science and culture held as instruments of nationalization policies during the first phase of the Franco regime in Spain It considers the reciprocal relationship between political legitimacy and developments in science and culture and explores the nationalization efforts in Spain in the 1940s and 1950s via the complex process of transmitting narratives of national identity through ideas representations and homogenizing practices Taking an interdisciplinary approach the volume features insights into how scientific and cultural language and symbols were used to formulate national identity through institutions resource distribution and specific national policies Split into five parts the collection considers policies in the Francoist New State the role of women in these debates and perspectives on the nationalization and internationalization efforts that made use of scientific and cultural spheres Chapters also feature insights into cinema literature cultural diplomacy mathematics and technology in debates on Catalonia the Nuclear Energy Board the
