The Founding of Spanish California Charles Edward Chapman,1973      Juana Briones of Nineteenth-century California Jeanne Farr McDonnell,2008-09-15 Juana Briones de Miranda lived an unusual life which is wonderfully recounted in this highly accessible biography She was one of the first residents of what is now San Francisco then named Yerba Buena Good Herb reportedly after a medicinal tea she concocted She was among the few women in California of her time to own property in her own name and she proved to be a skilled farmer rancher and businesswoman In retelling her life story Jeanne Farr McDonnell also retells the history of nineteenth century California from the unique perspective of this surprising woman Juana Briones was born in 1802 and spent her early youth in Santa Cruz a community of retired soldiers who had helped found Spanish California Native Americans and settlers from Mexico In 1820 she married a cavalryman at the San Francisco Presidio Apolinario Miranda She raised her seven surviving sons and daughters and adopted an orphaned Native American girl Drawing on knowledge she gained about herbal medicine and other cures from her family and Native Americans she became a highly respected curandera or healer Juana set up a second home and dairy at the base of then Loma Alta now Telegraph Hill the first house in that area After gaining a church sanctioned separation from her abusive husband she expanded her farming and cattle business in 1844 by purchasing a 4 400 acre ranch where she built her house located in the present city of Palo Alto She successfully managed her extensive business interests until her death in 1889 Juana Briones witnessed extraordinary changes during her lifetime In this fascinating book readers will see California s history in a new and revelatory light      Discovering Mission Santa Inés Sofia Nunes,2015-12-15 Learn about the rich history of Mission Santa In s how it started the people who ran it the indigenous population and its legacy today      Space in America Klaus Benesch,Kerstin Schmidt,2005 America s sense of space has always been tied to what Hayden White called the narrativization of real events If the awe inspiring manifestations of nature in America Niagara Falls Virginia s Natural Bridge the Grand Canyon etc were often used as a foil for projecting utopian visions and idealizations of the nation s exceptional place among the nations of the world the rapid technological progress and its concomitant appropriation of natural spaces served equally well as David Nye argues to promote the dominant cultural idiom of exploration and conquest From the beginning American attitudes towards space were thus utterly contradictory if not paradoxical a paradox that scholars tried to capture in such hybrid concepts as the middle landscape Leo Marx an engineered New Earth Cecelia Tichi or the technological sublime David Nye Not only was America s concept of space paradoxical it has always also been a contested terrain a site of continuous social and cultural conflict Many foundational issues in American history the dislocation of Native and African Americans the geo political implications of nation building immigration and transmigration the increasing division and clustering of contemporary American society etc involve differing ideals and notions of space

Quite literally space and its various ideological appropriations formed the arena where America's search for identity national political cultural has been staged If American democracy as Frederick Jackson Turner claimed is born of free land then its history may well be defined as the history of the fierce struggles to gain and maintain power over both the geographical social and political spaces of America and its concomitant narratives The number and range of topics interests and critical approaches of the essays gathered here open up exciting new avenues of inquiry into the tangled contentious relations of space in America Topics include Theories of Space Landscape Nature Technoscape Architecture Urban Utopia Literature Performance Film Visual Arts
