Spanish For The Housewife:

Spanish for the Housewife George W. Kelly, Rex R. Kelly, 1973 The Acquisition of Spanish in Understudied Language Pairings Tiffany Judy, Silvia Perpiñán, 2015-02-18 By examining the acquisition of Spanish in combination with languages other than English Arabic Basque Catalan Chinese Dutch Farsi French German Nahuatl Quechua Portuguese Swedish Turkish this volume advances novel data pertinent to the field's understanding of acquisition of Spanish in the XXI century Its crosslinguistic nature invites us to reconsider major theoretical questions such as the role of L1 transfer linguistic typology and onset of acquisition from a fresh perspective and to question the validity of the traditional parameter re setting perspective taken in SLA Additionally this volume underscores the necessity of providing accurate descriptions of the language pairings investigated emphasizing the interconnection between linguistic and SLA theory and pushing us to a more atomic view of the system in which features and feature bundles mapped onto lexical items comprise the skeleton of language This volume is of great relevance for researchers and students of SLA alike Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime In 1950 the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism In the 1950s and early 1960s filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem Luis García Berlanga and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista Death of a Cyclist Bienvenido Señor Marshall Welcome Mr Marshall and Viridiana The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura José Luis Borau Víctor Erice and others After Franco's death in 1975 censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality drugs the church the army and the Civil War The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but at long last mirrored the society it depicted While established directors like Saura Bardem and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz Tasio Fernando Trueba First Work Imanol Uribe The Death of Mikel and Pedro Almodóvar Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown In the last couple of decades exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis José Luis García The Grandfather and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver In Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80's and 90's and into the present day Schwartz provides background plot and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema In addition to identifying Spanish and English in Small Town and Rural America Daniel James Smith, 2024-12-26 This book examines Spanish English bilingual patterns in a small town and rural Northeast Georgia community of Hispanics recently immigrated from Mexico and other areas of Latin America Speech data from naturally occurring conversations by 56 children and adults of both sexes are analyzed within Myers Scotton's Matrix Language Frame MLF model. Eight language patterns are identified including monolingual Spanish and English turns, codeswitched turns, and turns showing convergence morphemes, words from one language with grammatical structure from the other. Tokens of each type per sentence or short conversational turn were counted per informant. Analysis reveals that percentages of monolingual and codeswitched utterances pattern in relation to percentages of utterances showing convergence, indicating that informants' Spanish does not begin to converge toward English until fewer than 70% of their utterances are monolingual Spanish, and that both codeswitching and convergence are mechanisms of language shift from dominance in one language to another. Several associated social factors of the informants, including age, gender, and country of origin, expand understanding of the linguistic and shift patterns. The percentages of the different language types also indicate abrupt shifts from predominance of one language type to another. This snapshot of a language shift in process and the abruptness of the shifts in stages is the unique observation of this study that has not been reported by other language contact researchers. The book also addresses the simultaneous acquisition of Spanish and English by young children and implications for education. The book will be of interest to students, teachers, and researchers of linguistics, sociolinguistics, bilingual education, and Spanish-English contact.
