Why Learn VERBS?

Learning the different endings and verb forms in Spanish can be challenging because there are so many! But don't worry—some are used very infrequently. We'll focus on the common verbs and provide a quick overview of the less common ones. Using them all will greatly expand what you can write and talk about.

WHAT ARE VERBS?

Verbs are words that express actions or states of being. English verbs tell us when an action takes place (tense). Spanish verbs tell us when an action takes place, and their endings also tell us who and how many perform the action (person and number). This guide describes the basic parts of a verb and how to form regular, irregular, and stem-changing verbs in the present and past, as well as two ways to form the future tense. It also describes reflexive verbs, commands, and the subjunctive mood and gives a quick look at the seven compound tenses.

- An infinitive is the basic form of a verb. In English, infinitives include the word "to" (to speak, to drink, to live). In Spanish, infinitives are single words that have one of these three endings: -ar, -er, -ir. Examples of these verbs are hablar (to speak), comer (to eat), and vivir (to live).
- Spanish verbs that are not infinitives need to be conjugated. This means that their form needs to be changed to indicate who is being described or doing the action.

For example, I speak, you speak, he speaks, and so on.

- Spanish verbs belong to different conjugations, groups that change form according to a specific pattern. Verbs ending in -ar are in the first conjugation, those ending in -er are in the second, and those ending in -ir are in the third conjugation.

NOTE: Spanish has two forms of address: familiar (fam.) and formal (form.). Tú is used when speaking to a friend, relative, or someone younger than you. Ud. is used at all other times. In Spain, people use the masculine (masc.) vosotros and feminine (fem.) vosotras forms when speaking to two or more friends, relatives, or people younger than they are. In Latin America, only Uds. is used when speaking to more than one person. (Ud. and Uds. are abbreviations for usted and ustedes.) The vosotros(as) form is italicized in charts throughout this guide as a reminder that this form of address is used only in Spain.

PRESENT TENSE

Present tense describes an action that is happening now. Spanish present tense is equivalent to three forms in English. For example, Hablo español can mean "I speak Spanish," "I am speaking Spanish," or "I do speak Spanish."

Present Tense of Regular Verbs

Every infinitive has two parts: the infinitive ending (-ar, -er, or -ir) and the stem. The stem is what is left after you remove the infinitive ending. It carries the meaning of the verb.

To form the present tense of regular verbs, drop the infinitive ending and add a set of endings to the stem. Each conjugation has its own set of endings.

PRESENT TENSE OF REGULAR -AR VERBS

- Endings are -o, -as, -a, -amos, -áis, -an.

Spanish verbs are both what makes the Spanish language beautiful and also what makes the language quite difficult to learn Compared to English Spanish has many more verbs In Spanish many of the phrases that we use in English have one exact verb that be used in their stead in Spanish This makes the Spanish language more versatile and exciting There are more ways to express yourself However Spanish is a difficult language to learn because each verb has many different conjugations based upon the subject and the tense that the verb is being used in If language learners can learn these conjugations then they will be speaking excellent Spanish in no time Study Guide for Beginning Spanish II. Harry T.
