Minority Rules David Lublin, 2014 When we think of minorities linguistic ethnic religious regional or racial in world politics conflict is often the first thing that comes to mind Indeed discord and tension are the depressing norms in many states across the globe Iraq the former Yugoslavia Sudan Israel Sri Lanka Burma Rwanda and many more But as David Lublin points out in this magisterial survey of minority based political groups across the globe such parties typically function fairly well within larger polities In Minority Rules he eschews the usual approach of shining attention on conflict and instead looks at the representation of minority groups in largely peaceful and democratic countries throughout the world from the tiniest nations in Polynesia to great powers like Russia Specifically he examines factors behind the electoral success of ethnic and regional parties and alternatively their failure to ever coalesce to explain how peaceful democracies manage relations between different groups Contrary to theories that emphasize sources of minority discontent that exacerbate ethnic cleavages for instance disputes over control of natural resource wealth Minority Rules demonstrates that electoral rules play a dominant role in explaining not just why ethnic and regional parties perform poorly or well but why one potential ethnic cleavage emerges instead of another This is important because the emergence of ethnic regional parties along with the failure to incorporate them meaningfully into political systems has long been associated with ethnic conflict Therefore Lublin's findings which derive from an unprecedentedly rich empirical foundation have important implications not only for reaching successful settlements to such conflicts but also for preventing violent majority minority conflicts from ever occurring in the first place

Spain, 1937 Organizing Innovation M. Veenswijk, 2006-04-13 New Public Management as an administrative reform ideology as well as conceptual innovation has changed the outlook of public administration during the last ten years Public administration and public administration reform should not only be concerned with the improvement of the efficiency and coherence which play an important role in public administration but also with political values like liberty equity and security as well as legal values like the rule of the law The modernization agenda of public administration has a rather internal focus while the ultimate test for the modernization of public administration is the way in which governments are able to respond to changing social cultural and economic conditions and the wicked policy problems which result from them This publication contains interesting contributions to the science and practice of public administration
