Entrepreneurial Ecosystems

Sophie Boutillier,Denis Carré,Nadine Levratto,2016-03-03 In today s rapidly changing business landscape entrepreneurship is growing and actively promoted by policy makers Several reports explore the influence of entrepreneurship on the economy and put some emphasis on its positive influence GDP per capita unemployment and exports However entrepreneurship does not go per se and it is now broadly admitted that the decision of the entrepreneur is narrowly connected with its environment the so called entrepreneurial ecosystem This book show why policymakers entrepreneurship supporters and entrepreneurs themselves should keep in mind the locally structured nature of entrepreneurial networks Even if the notion of Entrepreneurial Ecosystem has become quite popular among the international organization development agencies and public administrations this concept is often considered as a new one having its origins in very recent publications This books aims at showing that entrepreneurial ecosystems have their roots in the history of economic thought and that scholars have long been conscious of their importance Instead of insisting upon the diversity of agents involved in these organizations it also put some emphasis on the importance of the linkages and sharing between them and suggests some orientations in view of a performing evaluation system

Indo-Pacific Core and Peripheral Digital Economic Communities T. M. Vinod Kumar,2025-03-17 This book demonstrates to the world by a series of replicable case studies how the Indo Pacific developmental initiatives of QUAD France Germany the Netherlands Canada the European Union Japan Australia and others can be implemented using the design of Core Digital Economic Communities within the 21 megacities that form Indo pacific megacity system and outside with independent country strategies to engage with these megacity systems where Peripheral Digital Economic Communities are located

The Dynamics of Cities Dimitrios Dendrinos,2002-09-26 Dimitrios Dendrinos an expert in the application of non linear dynamics and chaos theory to the subject of urban and regional dynamics focuses here on fundamental issues in population growth and decline He approaches the topic of urban growth and decline within a global system perspective viewing the rise and fall of cities industries and nations as the result of global interdependencies which lead to unstable dynamics and widespread dualisms Professor Dendrinos provides valuable insights into the evolution of human settlements and considers the possible futures open to the giant cities of the world

System of Environmental Economic Accounting 2012 Experimental Ecosystems Accounting OECD,United Nations,European Union,The World Bank,Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2014-12-31 Ecosystem accounting is a relatively new and emerging field dealing with integrating complex biophysical data tracking

changes in ecosystems and linking those changes to economic and other human activity There is an increasing urgency to advance this emerging field of statistics on ecosystems The Political Economy of Rare Earth Elements Ryan David Kiggins,2015-07-28 The contributors argue that rare earths are essential to the information technology revolution on which humans have come to depend for communication commerce and increasingly engage in conflict They demonstrate that rare earths are a strategic commodity over which political actors will and do struggle for control Multicriteria Evaluation in a Fuzzy Environment Giuseppe Munda,2012-12-06 This book is the result of some years of research carried out at the Vrije Universiteit of Amsterdam and at the Joint Research Centre of the European Commission The awareness of actual and potential conflicts between economic progress in production consumption and technology and the environment has led to the concept of sustainable development implying that economic and ecological values are well balanced in evaluation and decision making The linkages between ecosystems and economic systems are the focus of ecological economics In ecological economics a multidimensional approach to economic and policy making is emphasised In this book the introduction of multicriteria decision aid techniques in the framework of ecological economics is widely discussed Since such techniques are based on a constructive rationality and allow one to take into account conflictual multidimensional incommensurable and uncertain effects of decisions they can be considered perfectly consistent with the methodological foundations of ecological economics Since here the assumption is accepted that efficiency equity and sustainability are the three conflictual values of economics a mathematical procedure able to deal with these issues in an operational framework is developed with a particular view on imprecise information in a practical environmental planning context Given the problem of the differences in the measurement levels of the variables used for economic ecological modelling multicriteria methods able to deal with mixed information both qualitative and quantitative measurements can be considered particularly useful Another problem related to the available information concerns the uncertainty stochastic and or fuzzy contained in this information
