Sohar Culture And Society In An Omani Town:

Sohar, Culture and Society in an Omani Town Fredrik Barth,1983 Sohar Fredrik Barth,1983 Histories of the Middle East Roxani Eleni Margariti,Adam Sabra,Petra Sijpesteijn,2010-12-20 Dedicated to their teacher Abraham L Udovitch his students offer in this volume a chronologically geographically and thematically wide range of papers united by an emphasis on a close reading of primary sources and the juxtaposition of different genres of narratives Cultural

Anthropology of the Middle East ,1992 During the last two decades the number of anthropological studies on the Middle East has increased exponentially This partially annotated bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of studies written in English French and German and covers the period from 1965 to 1987 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East, A

Bibliography, Volume 1 Cultural Anthropology of the Middle East 1965-1987 Strijp,2021-12-06 During the last two decades the number of anthropologists conducting research in the Middle East has increased considerably Together they have produced an abundance of valuable studies often based on prolonged periods of ethnographic fieldwork This bibliography offers a comprehensive survey of their results published between 1965 and 1987 It refers to studies published in English French and German Geographically the bibliography covers the area from Mauritania in the West to Afghanistan in the East and from Turkey in the North to the Arab Peninsula and Northern Sudan in the South The majority of studies inserted has been written by anthropologists Besides a considerable number of studies related to anthropology but published by non anthropologists has been integrated as well The majority of the monographs and volumes has been annotated

Community and Autonomy in Southern Oman Marielle Risse,2019-06-21 This book explores how there is latitude for people to make their own choices and how the chances to assert independence change over time in a Muslim Arab tribal culture The book first gives a brief overview of day to day life in the Dhofar region of southern Oman then focuses on how the traits of self control and self respect are linked in the everyday actions of several groups of tribes who speak Gibali Jibbali also known as Shari eret a non written Modern South Arabian language Although no work can express the totality of a culture this text describes how Gibalis are constantly shifting between preserving autonomy and signaling membership in family tribal and national communities The work reflects observations and conclusions from over ten years of research into the history and culture of the Dhofar region along with longstanding deep involvement with both men and women in the Gibali community Muslim Diversity Leif Manger,2013-10-18 The term local Islam has been coined to describe local responses to the effects of globalisation in the Islamic world All contributions to this volume present cases of local Islam as well as discussing the term itself But what all of this group of anthropologists and historians convey is a feeling of dissatisfaction with the very term Their uneasiness relates to the conceptual problems arising from seeing Islam as either local or global Rather the authors argue in favour of a focus not on Islam but on the lives of Muslims putting their lives into the context of complex historical developments Ranging across much of the vast extent of the Islamic world from West Africa and the Near East to China and Southeast Asia the contributions deal with the effects of migration on local Islamic traditions in Bangladesh conflicts between Muslim sects in Pakistan the development of jihad in West Africa the problem of maintaining a Muslim identity in China how Javanese Muslims combine their Islamic faith with belief in a local Javanese spirit world the comparison between urban and rural based Islam in Syria and in two studies from western Sudan issues of belief and broader aspects of identity management in a multi ethnic situation Cultivating the Past, Living the Modern Amal

Sachedina, 2021-09-15 Cultivating the Past Living the Modern explores how and why heritage has emerged as a prevalent force in building the modern nation state of Oman Amal Sachedina analyses the relations with the past that undergird the shift in Oman from an Ibadi shari Imamate 1913 1958 to a modern nation state from 1970 onwards Since its inception as a nation state material forms in the Sultanate of Oman such as old mosques and shari manuscripts restored forts national symbols such as the coffee pot or the dagger khanjar and archaeological sites have saturated the landscape becoming increasingly ubiquitous as part of a standardized public and visual memorialization of the past Oman's expanding heritage industry exemplified by the boom in museums exhibitions street montages and cultural festivals shapes a distinctly national geography and territorialized narrative But Cultivating the Past Living the Modern demonstrates there are consequences to this celebration of heritage As the national narrative conditions the way people ethically work on themselves through evoking forms of heritage it also generates anxieties and emotional sensibilities that seek to address the erasures and occlusions of the past A Cognitive Theory of Cultural Meaning Claudia Strauss, Naomi Quinn, 1997 Culture and meaning are central to anthropology but anthropologists do not agree on what they are Claudia Strauss and Naomi Quinn propose a new theory of cultural meaning one that gives priority to the way people's experiences are internalized Drawing on connectionist or neural network models as well as other psychological theories they argue that cultural meanings are not fixed or limited to static groups but neither are they constantly revised and contested Their approach is illustrated by original research on understandings of marriage and ideas of success in the United States Living Islam Magnus Marsden, 2005-12-19 Popular representations of Pakistan's North West Frontier have long featured simplistic images of tribal blood feuds fanatical religion and the seclusion of women The rise to power of the radical Taliban regime in neighbouring Afghanistan enhanced the region's reputation as a place of anti Western militancy Magnus Marsden is an anthropologist who has immersed himself in the lives of the Frontier's villagers for more than ten years His evocative study of the Chitral region challenges all these stereotypes Through an exploration of the everyday experiences of both men and women he shows that the life of a good Muslim in Chitral is above all a mindful life enhanced by the creative force of poetry dancing and critical debate Challenging much that has been assumed about the Muslim world this 2005 study makes a powerful contribution to the understanding of religion and politics both within and beyond the Muslim societies of southern Asia
