Advierte CTM: 800 mil empleos están en riesgo

BERTHA BECERRA

La Confederación de Trabajadores recuerda que el primer recorte fuerte ya lo hizo GM

La imposición de un arancel de 25 por ciento a las exportaciones mexicanas de acero y aluminio que van a EU pone en riesgo a 800 mil trabajadores sindicalizados que se encuentran en los sectores automotriz, autopartes, metal-mecánica y metalurgia, advierte Teresa Medina Ramírez, secretaria general adjunta de la Confederación de Trabajadores de México.

“Solo la industria automotriz genera un millón de empleos con armadoras y proveedores en toda la cadena productiva. Los 800 mil trabajadores son de todos los sindicatos de la CTM en los diferentes estados. La preocupación es que las plantas armadoras relocalicen parte de sus actividades y se regresen empleos a los Estados Unidos si se aplica el 25 por ciento de aranceles”, dice. En entrevista con El Sol de México explica que el primer recorte laboral se vivió en General Motors en Ramos Arizpe, Coahuila, donde se canceló el tercer turno y se despidieron mil 200 trabajadores, mientras en la industria de autopartes van 400 personas despedidas (300 en Morelia y 100 en Ciudad Acuña). Pág. 14

Sol Over Mexico:

The Truth about Mexico David Lawrence, 1917 The Provincial Deputation in Mexico Nettie Lee Benson, 2014-05-16

Mexico and the United States each have a constitution and a federal system of government. This fact has led many historians to assume that the Mexican system of government established in the 1820s is an imitation of the U.S. model. But it is not. In this interpretation of the independence movement, Nettie Lee Benson tells the true story of Mexico's transition from colonial status to a federal state. She traces the Mexican government's beginning to events in Spain in 1808-1810 when provincial juntas or deputations were established to oppose Napoleon's French rule and govern the country during the Spanish monarch's imprisonment. These provincial deputations proved so popular that ultimately they became the established form of government throughout the provinces of Spain and its New World dominions. It was the provincial deputation, not the United States federal system, that provided the model for the state legislative bodies that were eventually formed after Mexico won its independence from Spain in 1821. This finding, the result of years of painstaking archival research, strongly confirms the independence of Mexico's political development from U.S. influence. Its importance to a study of Mexican history cannot be overstated.

The Central Republic in Mexico, 1835-1846 Michael P. Costeloe, 2002-10-03

Much of the so-called Age of Santa Anna in the history of independent Mexico remains a mystery and no decade is less well understood than the years from 1835 to 1846. In 1834 the ruling elite of middle-class hombres de bien concluded that a highly centralised republican government was the only solution to the turmoil and factionalism that had characterised the new nation since its emancipation from Spain in 1821. The central republic was thus set up in 1835 but once again civil strife, economic stagnation, and military coups prevailed until 1846 when a disastrous war with the United States began in which Mexico was to lose half of its national territory. This study explains the course of events and analyses why centralism failed, the issues and personalities involved, and the underlying pressures of economic and social change.
