Monteverdi and his Contemporaries Tim Carter, 2024-10-28 This collection of reprinted essays takes the trends of the author's Music Patronage and Printing in Late Renaissance Florence also in the Variorum series in a somewhat different direction If the focus there was primarily on archival documents here it is on the actual music The starting point is similar the rise of the new music for solo voice and basso continuo in late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Florence in particular the songs of Giulio Caccini But it moves on to broader aesthetic issues crystallized in contemporary theoretical debate and musical practice not least the rise of aria based styles and concludes with a series of studies of Claudio Monteverdi's works for the theatre including the operas Il ritorno d'Ulisse in patria 1640 and the ever problematic L'incoronazione di Poppea 1643

Shakespeare through Letters David M. Bergeron, 2020-10-14 In Shakespeare through Letters David M. Bergeron analyzes the letters found within Shakespeare's comedies histories and tragedies arguing that the letters offer the principal intertextual element in the plays as text in their own right Bergeron posits that Shakespeare's theater itself exists at the intersection of oral and textual culture which the letters also exhibit as they represent writing reading and interpretation in a way that audiences would be familiar with in contrast with the illustrious culture of kings queens and warriors This book demonstrates that the letters profound or perfunctory constitute texts that warrant interpretation even as they remain material stage props impacting narrative development revealing character and enhancing the play's tone Scholars of literature theater and history will find this book particularly useful

Theological Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, Peter John McGregor, M. Isabell Naumann, 2022-04-29 Theological

Anthropology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium is the third volume of the Theology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium series. Bringing together Catholic and Orthodox scholars of diverse disciplines, this work sheds new light on the question: what does it mean to be a human person? Beginning with an overview on the state of the discipline in our time, the book brings theological anthropology into dialogue with epistemology, Christology, science, spiritual theology, and pedagogy. It explores how human persons, who are created in God's image and likeness, can come to knowledge of the self and the other such that the individual person can know love and be united to the God and Father of Jesus Christ.
