

Soviet Strategy During the War

- ❑ The deck was stacked against the Soviet military effort:
 - As an avowedly atheist foreign power, it had allied itself with a hated regime completely out of step with the Afghan people.
 - The government had little legitimacy.
 - The military tasks were daunting and the Karmal government had little international support outside the Soviet Union.
 - It had too few soldiers to control the countryside, so they limited themselves to sweeps or clearing operations.
 - The enemy had a secure sanctuary and great amounts of international support.
- ❑ A contemporary account noted that:
- ❑ "To date, Soviet strategy appears to have been to hold the major centers of communications, limit infiltration, and destroy local strongholds at minimum costs to their own forces. In essence, the Soviet strategy [was] one wherein high technology, superior tactical mobility, and firepower are used to make up for an insufficient number of troops and to hold Soviet casualties to a minimum."
