Soviet Warships 1945 To The Present:

Soviet Warships John Jordan,1992 Warships of the Soviet Fleets 1939-1945 Przemyslaw Budzbon,Jan Radziemski,Marek Twardowski,2024-01-05 Seventy five years after the end of the Second World War the details of Soviet ships their activities and fates remain an enigma to the West In wartime such information was classified and after a brief period of glasnost openness the Russian state has again restricted access to historical archives Therefore the value and originality of this work is difficult to exaggerate It sees the first publication of reliable data on both the seagoing fleets and riverine flotillas of the Soviet Navy listing over 6200 vessels from battleships to river gunboats and mercantile conversions as well as purpose built warships Divided into three volumes this first covers major surface warships down to MTBs and armored gunboats as well as submarines For every class there is a design history analyzing strategic tactical and technical considerations and individual ship detail includes construction yard key building dates commissioning fleet designations relocations and ultimate fate Once a closely guarded secret the wartime loss of every ship and boat over 1000 is described Furthermore the confusion caused by frequent name changes is clarified by indexes that run to 16 000 items By following the ships through both their wartime and earlier history the book reveals many aspects of Russian history that remain highly sensitive clandestine co operation with Weimar Germany and fascist Italy the NKVD enforced closure of Soviet borders the Gulag Fleet the faked Metallist sinking that excused the military occupation of Estonia and the ill conceived pact with Nazi Germany Restrictions recently imposed on historical publications in Russia mean this book could certainly not have been published there as proven by the fact that most of the authors Russian collaborators preferred not to disclose their identities This is undoubtedly one of the most important naval reference works of recent years and will be welcomed by anyone with an interest in warships the Soviet Navy or wider maritime aspects of the Second World War The Submariner's Dictionary Or Submariner's Compendium of Terms & Tar's Handbook of Naval Verbiage and Retired Guy's Re-familiarization Manual Ron Martini,2005 Submariners are a tight knit group of men bound together by training and experience and with a language all their own That language is perhaps a little vulgar but never intentionally demeaning and a little irreverent but still worldly This work is an attempt to preserve and explain some of these curious guys who so proudly wear a shiny metal pin that looks like a strange pair of fish on their left breast This process of accumulating this new language begins in Boot Camp and is added to with every change of duty station the sailor undergoes It is heard aboard the boats and unknowingly by family members who can't understand terms like head deck and overhead and who think SOS is a distress signal Stalin's Ocean-going Fleet Mikhail Monakov,Jurgen Rohwer,2012-11-12 A study of the development of strategic concepts in Stalin's Navy in the context of his foreign defence policy using original archival documents translated from the Russian Soviet Cold War Guided Missile Cruisers Edward Hampshire,2017-01-26 Heavily armed and formidable guided missile cruisers formed the core of the Soviet Navy during the Cold War From the last class of conventional Sverdlov class cruisers through to increasingly complex and formidable missile cruisers these ships ensured that NATO took the Soviet naval threat seriously Soviet Cold War Guided Missile Cruisers covers all classes of these impressive warships from the early Sverdlov through the Kynda Kresta Kara and Slava to the enormous Kirov classes Together these vessels marked the apogee of Soviet naval technology and capability and they remain today the largest non aircraft carrier warships built since 1945 Containing material previously only available in Russian and fully researched from specialist defence journals this comprehensive volume examines the design development and intended role of these impressive hi tech warships and recounts their dramatic operational history as NATO and Soviet warships faced off against each other during the long Cold War at sea

The naval war film Jonathan Rayner, 2013-07-19 This book undertakes a unique coherent and comprehensive consideration of the depiction of naval warfare in the cinema The films under discussion encompass all areas of naval operations in war and highlight varying institutional and aesthetic responses to navies and the sea in popular culture The examination of these films centres on their similarities to and differences from the conventions of the war genre and seeks to determine whether the distinctive characteristics of naval film narratives justify their categorisation as a separate genre or sub genre in popular cinema The explicit factual bases and drama documentary style of many key naval films such as In Which We Serve They Were Expendable and Das Boot also requires the consideration of these films as texts for popular historical transmission Their frequent reinforcement of establishment views of the past which derives from their conservative ideological position towards national and naval culture makes these films key texts for the consideration of national cinemas as purveyors of contemporary history as popularly conceived by filmmakers and received by audiences Modern
