extraordinary machines and weapons of a future age brought him a fame unequalled among the mariners of deep space

1950s Television Advertising Vincent Terrace, 2025-01-05 Winston tastes good like a cigarette should and You ll wonder where the yellow went when you brush your teeth with Pepsodent are only two of the many slogans associated with advertising on television in the 1950s There were celebrities like Marilyn Monroe Barbara Eden and Peter Lorre who performed in commercials there were shows built around a single product e g The Texaco Star Theater and The Colgate Comedy Hour there were numerous premiums offered to children e g The Sky King Detecto Microscope The Mickey Mouse Club Magazine and gimmicks used by sponsors to attract viewers to their shows e g Win a Wagon Train Pony and The Howdy Doody Smile Contest This is the first and only book of its kind it is a nostalgic trivia filled history presented through the actual programs and commercials of the 1950s In addition to two extensively detailed sections which have never been released online or in any other book Sponsor and Program and Program and Sponsor rare television theme songs with their original sponsor tags products mentioned in the theme songs are also presented It all began on July 1 1941 when WNBT the NBC affiliate in New York City televised the first commercial a ten second spot for Bulova Watches

Television Introductions Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes In the 1950s and 60s it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show Other programs such as The Twilight Zone Star Trek and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show s subject matter a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias Battlestar Galactica Person of Interest and the various editions of Law Order In Television Introductions Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children s show In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show s network history and years of broadcast Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie s Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history The Spacesuit Film Gary Westfahl,2014-01-10 Filmmakers employ various images to suggest the strangeness of outer space but protective spacesuits most powerfully communicate its dangers and the frailty of humans beyond the cradle of Earth Many films set in space however forgo spacesuits altogether reluctant to hide famous faces behind bulky helmets and ill fitting jumpsuits This critical history comprehensively examines science fiction films that portray space travel realistically and sometimes not quite so by having characters wear spacesuits Beginning A with the pioneering Himmelskibet 1918 and Woman on the Moon 1929 it discusses B other classics in this tradition including Destination Moon 1950 Riders to the Stars 1954 and 2001 A Space Odyssey 1968 C films that gesture toward realism but betray that goal with melodramatic villains low comedy or improbable monsters D the distinctive spacesuit films of Western Europe Russia and Japan and E America s spectacular real life spacesuit film the televised Apollo 11 moon landing 1969

Television Series of the 1950s Vincent Terrace,2016-05-16 Often regarded as the first golden era of television the 1950s was a decade when many classic programs from I Love Lucy and Gunsmoke to The Honeymooners and Perry Mason among others made their debuts Even after these shows departed the airwaves they lived on in syndication entertaining several generations of viewers Devoted and casual fans alike can probably remember basic facts about these shows like the names of Lucy and Ricky s neighbors or the town where Marshall Matt Dillon kept the law But more elusive facts like the location of the most successful defense attorney in Los Angeles Suite 904 of the Brent Building might be harder to recall In Television Series of the 1950s Essential Facts and Quirky Details Vincent Terrace presents readers with a cornucopia of information about 100 programs from the decade Did you know for example that the middle initial of Dobie Gillis friend Maynard G Krebs stood for Walter Or that Ralph Kramden s electric bill came to only 39 cents a month Or that on I Love Lucy Ricky originally performed at Manhattan s Tropicana Club These are but a few of the hundreds of fun and intriguing trivia facts contained within this volume Shows from all four networks ABC CBS NBC and DuMont as well as select syndicated programs are represented here This is not a book of opinions or essays about specific television programs but a treasure trove of the facts associated with each of these programs Readers will discover a wealth of fascinating information that for the most part cannot be found anywhere else In some cases the factual data detailed herein is the only such documentation that exists currently on bygone shows of the era Television Series of the 1950s is the ideal reference for fans of this decade and anyone looking to stump even the most knowledgeable trivia expert Radio Program Openings and Closings, 1931-1972 Vincent Terrace,2015-06-08 The openings and closings to radio programs of all types from comedies Blondie The Jack Benny Program Lum and Abner to mysteries Inner Sanctum Mysteries The Black Chapel to game shows Can You Top This Truth or Consequences to serials Second Husband Bachelor s Children to crime dramas The Falcon Enno Crime Clues The Green

York,2014-01-10 Conventional wisdom holds that comic books of the post World War II era are poorly drawn and poorly written publications notable only for the furor they raised Contributors to this thoughtful collection however demonstrate that these comics constitute complex cultural documents that create a dialogue between mainstream values and alternative beliefs that question or complicate the grand narratives of the era Close analysis of individual titles including EC comics Superman romance comics and other more obscure works reveals the ways Cold War culture from atomic anxieties and the nuclear family to communist hysteria and social inequalities manifests itself in the comic books of the era By illuminating the complexities of mid century graphic novels this study demonstrates that postwar popular culture was far from monolithic in its representation of American values and beliefs
