

Look at the stars! look, look up at the skies!
O look at all the fire-folk sitting in the air!
The bright boroughs, the circle-citadels there!
Down in dim woods the diamond delves! the elves'-eyes!
The grey lawns cold where gold, where quickgold lies!
Wind-beat whitebeam! airy abeles set on a flare!
Flake-doves sent floating forth at a farmyard scare!
Ah well! it is all a purchase, all is a prize ...

Edited, introduced and annotated by renowned Auden scholar Edward Mendelson, this definitive edition includes all the poems Auden wrote for publication in their original texts and all his later revised versions as well as poems and songs he never published, some of them printed here for the first time. This volume follows Auden as a mature artist, containing all the poems that he published or submitted for publication from 1940 until his death in 1973 at age sixty-six. This includes all his poetry collections from this period: from The Double Man (1941) through Epistle to a Godson (1972). The volume also features an edited version of his incomplete posthumous book Thank You Fog as well as his self-designated posthumous poems. The main text presents the poems in their original published versions. The notes include the extensive revisions that he made to his poems over the course of his career and provide explanations of obscure references. The first volume of this edition, Poems Volume I 1927-1939, is also available. Mom in Space Lisa Ampleman, 2024-01-31

Mom in Space is a complicated love letter to both the intergalactic and the terrestrial. Using the lens of spaceflight, Lisa Ampleman explores subjects ranging from the personal to the political, from fertility tests and parenting to climate change and civil rights. As NASA and commercial space companies gear up for Artemis missions to the moon, Mom in Space offers new conceptions of women in space, incorporating both fictional and real female astronauts among them: the first mom in space, Anna Fisher, and the first Black woman in space, Mae Jemison. With a sense of both awe and informed inquiry, Mom in Space considers what spaceflight means not just for those who get rocketed into space but for those who stay home.
