Space Carnival:

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 As theorists have begun using geographical concepts and metaphors to think about the complex and differentiated world it is important to reflect on their work and its impact on our thoughts on space This revealing book explores the work of a wide range of prolific social theorists Included contributions from an impressive range of renowned geographical writers each examine the work of one writer ranging from early this century to contemporary writers Among the writers discussed are Georg Simmel Mikhail Bakhtin Gilles Deleuze Helene Cixous Henri Lefebvre Jacques Lacan Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault and Franz Fanon Ideal for those interested in the spatial turn in social and cultural theory this fascinating book asks what role space plays in the work of such theorists what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space

Performing Disfiguration Akhila Vimal C., 2025-08-09 This book explores the processes of disfiguration in the classical and ritual healing performances of India with a particular focus on the rich and diverse performance traditions of Kerala It examines three modes of disfiguration blood madness and laughter to offer unique insights into how these elements shape the performative body By drawing on Kerala's distinctive cultural and ritual contexts this work provides a deep understanding of the region's embodied practices Written from an interdisciplinary perspective the book blends performance studies with detailed ethnographic descriptions to capture the nuances of pain and affect It challenges and subverts normative notions of performance offering a fresh lens through which to view these dynamic traditions This book serves as an invaluable resource for scholars of dance performance studies and practitioners seeking to explore the interplay between region ritual and disfiguration in Indian performance forms

The Evolution of Space in Russian Literature Katharina Hansen Löve, 2023-07-31 This book is concerned with the literary development of the narrative category of space in Russian literature from Romanticism until Modernism It consists of two parts The theoretical introduction renders a survey of some major 20th century theories on literary development in the tradition of Russian Formalism and Czech Structuralism A critical discussion is given of the cultural and stylistic typologies of the soviet scholar D Lichacev and the semiotician I Smirnov Furthermore the ideas on literary space as they were developed by two important representatives of the Moscow Tartu School of Semiotics Ju Lotman and V Toporov are described together with the method of literary analysis they offer The contents of the second part of the book are analyses of the structure of space in the following narrative works Mcyri by M Ju Lermontov Nevskij prospekt by N V Gogol Oblomov by I A Goncarov V tolpe by F Sologub and Kotlovan by A Platonov The analyses are accompanied by an interpretation of the story based on the spatial details in the text It appears that both continuity and change characterize the development of literary space This two fold nature of the evolutionary process comes to the fore through recurrence of spatial archetypes in all the periods under discussion and through ambivalence of meaning as a result of the semiotization of literary space in each literary work

Outer Space and Popular Culture Annette

Froehlich,2019-08-01 This book provides detailed insights into how space and popular culture intersect across a broad spectrum of examples including cinema music art arcade games cartoons comics and advertisements This is a pertinent topic since the use of space themes differs in different cultural contexts and these themes can be used to explore various aspects of the human condition and provide a context for social commentary on politically sensitive issues With the use of space imagery evolving over the past sixty years of the space age this is a topic ripe for in depth exploration The book also discusses the contrasting visions of space from the late 19th and early 20th centuries and the reality of today and analyzes space vehicles and habitats in popular depictions of space from an engineering perspective exploring how many of those ideas have actually been implemented in practice and why or why not a case of life imitating art and vice versa As such it covers a wide array of relevant and timely topics examining intersections between space and popular culture and offering accounts of space and its effect on culture language and storytelling from the southern regions of the world Billboard

Public Space In Urban Asia William Siew Wai Lim,2013-12-16 Over the past few decades rapid urbanisation has threatened to erode public space especially in emerging economies Market forces that prioritise profit generation are allowed to construct venues of consumption in its place Though their physical appearance may resemble traditional public space in reality they are greatly restrictive and diminished in affordability accessibility and social meaning It is in this context that William SW Lim chairman of Asian Urban Lab has brought together architects designers historians sociologists and urbanists from the region to discuss public space in selected Asian cities Part One contains essays from participants from Chongqing Hong Kong Jakarta Kuala Lumpur Singapore and Taipei and observations from commentators Several essays by William SW Lim on the subject round off the discussion in Part Two The thoughtful essays in Public Space in Urban Asia emphasise how engaging with the present actuality of cities and public awareness of spatial justice in cities are crucial for it is the achievement of spatial justice that will help create a greater level of happiness across societies in our increasingly urbanised world      Billboard ,1947-11-29 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends      Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Dr Sara Upstone,2013-04-28 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone's study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation
