Space Territory And The State New Readings In International Politics:

Space, Territory, and the State Ranabira Samāddāra, 2002 This collection of essays addresses the neglected issues of space border and statelessness in international politics and contributes a much needed view from the South Importantly it asserts that chasms created by borders including those between India and Pakistan can be bridged by dialogue a little analysed tool in international relations Civilizational Dialogue and World Order M. Michael, 2009-05-25 The book comes at a very critical moment in the debate on civilization and responds to the lack of scholarly attention by international relations and political theorists as to how the discourse of dialogue of cultures religions and civilizations can contribute to the future of world order

Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Bernardo A. Michael, 2012-12-15 Statemaking and Territory in South Asia Lessons from the Anglo Gorkha War 1814 1816 seeks to understand how European colonization transformed the organization of territory in South Asia through an examination of the territorial disputes that underlay the Anglo Gorkha War of 1814 1816 and subsequent efforts of the colonial state to reorder its territories The volume argues that these disputes arose out of older tribute taxation and property relationships that left their territories perpetually intermixed and with ill defined boundaries It also seeks to describe the long drawn out process of territorial reordering undertaken by the British in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that set the stage for the creation of a clearly defined geographical template for the modern state in South Asia

Conflict Zone Literatures Debamitra Kar, 2024-07-12 This book examines the metanarratives promoted by the state that determine the ideological framework and how these respond under extraneous circumstances like conflicts The volume shows how individuals in such geo politically aggrieved zones re organise re structure and re interpret their memory and identity and negotiate with violence in the literary space Focusing on Kashmir and Northern Ireland in the decades of 1980s and 1990s and post 9 11 America the author maps the changing contours of the state and its powers in the late capitalist phase It investigates complex themes such as the changing nature of governance and warfare citizenship and resistance inclusivity and xenophobia and statecraft as a linguistic discourse in the post global scenario Interdisciplinary in approach the volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature and aesthetics peace and conflict studies politics and international relations

The Politics of Dialogue Ranabir Samaddar, 2017-07-05 Offering a detailed analysis of post colonial South Asia The Politics of Dialogue discusses the creation and impact of borders and the pervasive tension between the new nations Neither all out war nor complete peace this fragile condition makes political leaders and strategists feel claustrophobic a war produces an end result but peace allows the rulers to carry out their policies for governing along their preferred path of development The book shows how cartographic communal and political lines are not only dividing countries but that they are being replicated within countries creating new visible and invisible internal frontiers It argues that in a situation where geopolitics constrains democracy the political class becomes incapable of coping with the tension between the inside outside eg democracy appears as an internal problem and geopolitics appears as a problem related to the outside

Rethinking Insecurity, War and Violence Damian

Grenfell, Paul James, 2008-07-25 Rethinking Insecurity War and Violence Beyond Savage Globalization is a collection of essays by scholars intent on rethinking the mainstream security paradigms Overall this collection is intended to provide a broad and systematic analysis of the long term sources of political military and cultural insecurity from the local to the global The book provides a stronger basis for understanding the causes of conflict and violence in the world today one that adds a different dimension to the dominant focus on finding proximate causes and making quick responses Too often the arenas of violence have been represented as if they have been triggered by reassertions of traditional and tribal forms of identity primordial and irrational assertions of politics Such ideas about the sources of insecurity have become entrenched in a wide variety of media sources and have framed both government policies and academic arguments Rather than treating the sources of insecurity as a retreat from modernity this book complicates the patterns of global insecurity to a degree that takes the debates simply beyond assumptions that we are witnessing a savage return to a bloody and tribalized world It will be of particular interest to students and scholars of international relations security studies gender studies and globalization studies

Kashmir as a Borderland Antía Mato Bouzas, 2025-10-01 Kashmir as a Borderland The Politics of Space and Belonging across the Line of Control examines the Kashmir dispute from both sides of the Line of Control LoC and within the theoretical frame of border studies It draws on the experiences of those living in these territories such as divided families traders cultural and social activists Kashmir is a borderland that is a context for spatial transformations where the resulting interactions can be read as a process of becoming rather than of being The analysis of this borderland shows how the conflict is manifested in territory in specific locations with a geopolitical meaning evidencing the discrepancy between representation and the living The author puts forward the concept of belonging as a useful category for investigating more inclusive political spaces

Peace Processes and Peace Accords Samir Kumar Das, 2005-11-05 The second volume in the South Asian Peace Studies series Peace Processes and Peace Accords looks at the political question of peace from three perspectives the process of peace the contentious issues involved in the peace process and the ideologies that come in conflict in this process Arguing that peace is not a one time event to be achieved and rejoiced over but a matter to be sustained against various odds the contributors show that the sustainability of peace depends on a foundation of rights justice and democracy Peace accords they maintain are only a moment in the process the very act of signing an accord could mark either a continuation of the same conflict or simply its metamorphosis Therefore as this volume shows negotiation should be redefined as joint problem solving on a long term sustained basis rather than one off hard bargaining

The Fundamentalist City? Nezar AlSayyad, Mejjan Massoumi, 2010-09-13 AlSayyad and Massoumi's text addresses the ways in which religion can affect the city and indeed how the city can affect religion International experts in sociology anthropology religious studies urban planning and geography come together to provide thought provoking pieces on whether a fundamentalist city is possible

The Politics of

Swidden farming Debojyoti Das, 2018-09-28 The Politics of Swidden Farming offers a new explanation for the changes taking place in swidden farming practised in the highlands of eastern India through an ethnographic case study The book traces the story of agroecological change and state intervention to colonial times and helps understand contemporary agrarian change by contextualizing farming not just in terms of the science and technology of agriculture or conservation and biodiversity but also in terms of technologies of rule The Politics of Swidden Farming adds a new dimension to the underdeveloped literature on shifting cultivation in South Asia by focusing on the social ecology of farming and agrarian change in the hills It provides a comparative viewpoint to state centred and donor driven development in the frontier region by bringing in different actors and institutions that become the actants and agents of social change

Citizens Without Frontiers Engin F. Isin, 2012-11-02 States define who their citizens are and exert control over their life and movements But how does such power persist in a global world where people ideas and products constantly cross the borders of what the states see as their sovereign territory This groundbreaking work sets to examine and interprets such challenges to offer a new way of thinking about citizenship Abandoning the sovereignty principle it develops a new image of citizenship using the connectedness principle To do so it interprets acts of citizenship by following activist citizens across the world through case studies from Wikileaks and the Gaza flotilla to China's virtual world and Darfur Written by a leader in the field this accessible and original work imagines citizens without frontiers as a politics without community and belonging inclusion without exclusion where the frontier becomes a form of otherness that citizens erase or create This unique work brings forth a new and creative way to approach citizenship beyond boundaries that will appeal to anyone studying citizenship social movements and migration

Partition and the South Asian Diaspora Papiya Ghosh, 2014-03-21 Preface Acknowledgements Introduction 1 Negotiating nations 2 Claiming Pakistan 3 Resisting Hindutva 4 Redoing South Asia 5 Conclusion Bibliography Index

Beyond Lines of Control Ravina Aggarwal, 2004-11-30 Ravina Aggarwal explores how the conflict over Kashmir between India Pakistan has affected the Buddhist Muslim communities of Ladakh part of Kashmir that lies high in the Himalayas

Differences in Common Joana Sabadell-Nieto, Marta Segarra, 2014-05-10 Differences in Common engages in the ongoing debate on community focusing on its philosophical and political aspects through a gendered perspective It explores the subversive and enriching potential of the concept of community as seen from the perspective of heterogeneity and distance and not from homogeneity and fused adhesions This theoretical reflection is in most of the essays included here based on the analysis of literary and filmic texts which due to their irreducible singularity teach us to think without being tied or needing to resort to commonplaces Philosophers such as Arendt Blanchot Foucault Agamben or Derrida have made seminal reflections on community often inspired by contemporary historical events and sometimes questioning the term itself More recently thinkers like Judith Butler Gayatri Spivak or Rada Ivekovic included in this volume are essays by all three have emphasized the gender bias in the debate also problematizing the notion of community Most of the essays gathered in

Differences in Common conceive community not as the affirmation of several properties which would unite us to other similar individuals but as the expropriation of ourselves Esposito in an intimate diaspora Community does not fill the gap between subjects but places itself in this gap or void This conception stresses the subject's vulnerability a topic which is also central to this volume The body of community is thus opened by a wound Cixous which exposes us to the contagion of otherness The essays collected here reflect on different topics related to these issues such as gender and nation nationalism

internationalism transnationalism nationalism's naturalization of citizenship and the exclusion of women from citizenship the violent consequences of a gendered nation on women's bodies gendering community preservation of difference's within the community bodily vulnerability and new politics community and mourning community and the politics of memory fiction historical truth and fake documentary love relationality and community interpretive communities and virtual communities on the Web among others Joana Sabadell Nieto is Professor of Contemporary Spanish Literature Gender and Feminist Studies at Hamilton College USA and Researcher at the Center for Women and Literature at the University of Barcelona Marta Segarra is Professor of French and Francophone literature and Gender Studies at the University of Barcelona Spain Director of the UNESCO Chair Women Development and Cultures and co-founder and director of the Center for Women and Literature 2003-2012 The Politics of South American Boundaries Carlos Parodi, 2002-04-30 Parodi shows that boundary disputes have and continue to play a major role in creating tensions in South America Of the 25 international territorial boundaries that exist in South America eight were marked with major wars eight with lesser wars and five with some level of violence As recently as 1995 the armies of Ecuador and Peru were at war to define a boundary In 1982 Argentina went to war inspired by the call to restore a piece of its mutilated national territory Venezuela and Guyana Guyana and Suriname and Suriname and French Guiana have not completed boundary demarcation agreements Bolivia's insistence on its right for sovereign access to the Pacific Ocean is a source of tension with Chile and Peru Colombia and Venezuela have unresolved boundary issues in the Gulf of Venezuela Clearly boundary disputes have and continue to play a major role in creating larger conflicts within South America Territorial boundaries are marks on the ground but as Parodi shows their staying power or stability depends on their grip on consciousness By examining the boundary theory of South American states and its implementation he also explains how the symbolic system of South American boundaries is used to instill national identity mobilize people to war and control population and territory This text will be of particular interest to scholars students and researchers involved with Latin American politics diplomacy and international relations Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann

Kreutzmann, 2024-08-05 In Pamirian Crossroads and Beyond Hermann Kreutzmann offers insights in his fieldwork based research in High Asia during four decades A human geographical perspective is pursued in which case studies about colonial and post-colonial boundary making exchange relations of mountain communities across international borders the transformation of agricultural and pastoral practices and the effects of modernisation strategies in neighbouring countries are centred in the Hindukush Wakhan Quadrangle Pamirian Crossroads Karakoram Mountains and Himalaya Empirical evidence is augmented by in depth archival research thus allowing a perspective from the 19th to the 21st century By shifting the focus to mountain peripheries and emphasising spaces in between urban centres of power in Afghanistan Pakistan China and the Central Asian Republics different arenas of confrontation and effective changes emerge

Makeshift Migrants and Law Ratna Kapur,2012-03-12 With reference to South Asia Power, Islam, and Political Elite in Iran Eva Rakel,2008-11-30 The Iranian Islamic revolution brought about a political system based on a combination of state institutions that derive their legitimacy from Islamic law and republican institutions legitimized by the people As there are no legal political parties in the Islamic Republic of Iran political factions represent the varying ideological and material interests of members of the political elite and their supporters This book analyzes the rivalries between the political factions and their related state institutions and the impact of the dynamics of factionalism on domestic economic and socio cultural and foreign policy formulation It shows that tensions inherent to the structure of state institutions and factional rivalries slow down the process of democratization and economic reforms in the Islamic Republic of Iran The Politics of Relations André Thiemann,2024-06-01 Rethinking the contributions of the Manchester School of Social Anthropology for political ethnography the Politics of Relations elaborates its relational approach to the state along four interlaced axes of research embeddedness boundary work modalities and strategic selectivity that enable thick comparisons across spatio temporal scales of power In Serbia local experiences of self government infrastructure and care motivate its citizens to become the state while cursing it heartily While both officials and citizens strive for a state that enables a normal life they navigate the increasingly illiberal politics enacted by national parties and which are tolerated by trans national donors The Power of Cities in International Relations Simon Curtis,2014-04-16 Cities have become increasingly important to global politics but have largely occupied a peripheral place in the academic study of International Relations IR This is a notable oversight for the discipline although one which may be explained by IR s traditional state centrism the subjugation of the city to the demands of the territorial state in the modern period and a lack of conceptual and analytical frameworks that can allow scholars to include the impact of cities within their work Presenting case specific scholarship from leading experts in the field each contribution guides the reader through the changing nature of cities in the international system and their increasing prominence in global governance outcomes The book features case studies on the financial power of cities city action in the security domain collaboration of cities in coping with environmental problems transnational urban regions and mayors as international actors to illustrate if the relationship between the city and the state has changed in profound ways and how cities are empowered by structural changes in world politics The multidisciplinary and global focus in The Power of Cities in International Relations sheds much needed light on the significance of the reemergence of cities from the long shadow of the nation state Only by examining the mechanisms that have empowered cities in the last few decades can we understand their new functions and capabilities in global politics
