Spaces For Silence:

Spaces for Silence Mother Mary Francis, 2023-09-15 Mother Mary Francis has an extraordinarily honest view of reality a reality illuminated by faith irradiated with joy She understands that the world for which the Poor Clares pray through the night and day is one in which international and national stresses cold wars burning hates false ideologies poverty speed automation and gross advertising fragmentize the order and peace that man was made for She does not sentimentalize monastic life either The unfinished enclosure fence ends like a hiccup the nose is red the feet are blue with cold She is a realist because she knows that God is the only Reality and she looks at warts and broken water pipes with the sure awareness that God Incarnate looked at the reality of His world with absolute honesty To accept reality in this way one must see it illuminated by faith Mother Mary Francis writes as a person who believes what God has said because He said it He said I am the Way She tells about following Him He said If anyone wishes to come after Me let him deny himself take up his cross and follow Me She tells about discipline and penance accepted with gladness because Christ chose suffering as an expression of love He said Do not be afraid little flock She tells of trust and unwavering confidence in the providence of God He said These things I have spoken to you that my joy may be in you She tells us the secret of joy Mayhem Chris Aguilar, 2006-09 Spanning ten years of life and poetry This first collection of poetry from Southern California's award winning poet includes themes from love and spiritual enlightenment to a struggle to realize one's true identity Published in numerous journals and magazines throughout his career as well as having published chapbooks editors have hailed his work as Powerful Stuff

Rhetorical Agendas Patricia Bizzell, 2006-04-21 This volume represents current theory and research in rhetoric across disciplines and is of interest to scholars and students in rhetoric studies in speech communication English and related disciplines Immaterial Archives Jenny Sharpe, 2020-03-15 In this innovative study Jenny Sharpe moves beyond the idea of art and literature as an alternative archive to the historical records of slavery and its aftermath Immaterial Archives explores instead the intangible phenomena of affects spirits and dreams that Caribbean artists and writers introduce into existing archives Through the works of Frantz Fanon Aimé Césaire Édouard Duval-Carrié M. NourbeSe Philip Erna Brodber and Kamau Brathwaite Immaterial Archives examines silences as black female spaces Afro-Creole sacred worlds as diasporic cartographies and the imaginative conjoining of spirits with industrial technologies as disruptions of enlightened modernity

Paul Baker and the Integration of Abilities Robert Flynn, Eugene McKinney, 2003 Irritating arrogant nuts and a genius That's what Charles Laughton said of Paul Baker He also said Paul Baker is one of the most important minds in the world theater today He seems to have invented new ways of doing things and I think something big will come out of it Something big did come out of it Stage productions such as Othello Hamlet and A Cloud of Witnesses brought critics including Henry Hewes of Saturday Review and photographers such as Eliot Elisofon of Life magazine to Baylor Theater in Waco Baker's production of Eugene McKinney's A Different Drummer received an invitation from CBS TV's cultural program

Omnibus to present the play live from their New York studio Baker's production of As I Lay Dying Robert Flynn's adaptation of William Faulkner's novel brought an invitation to present the play at the Theater of Nations in Paris the first non Broadway production to compete there where it won a Special Jury Award That was Paul Baker the theater director Equally important was Baker's role as teacher and mentor in the arts Architect Arthur Rogers stated No single person has contributed more to theater architecture development than Paul Baker Baker's architectural visions at Baylor Theater the Dallas Theater Center and Trinity University's Ruth Taylor Theater have inspired similar constructions not only in the United States but in places such as Manila and Seoul Baker's teaching philosophy based on his famous class The Integration of Abilities has been inspirational In education Baker has been founder mentor or director of children's theaters where children are the creators of the drama of the Booker T Washington School of the Arts of the Learning About Learning Foundation a retail line of interactive kits that included books and toys and dozens of creative programs for children parents and educators In Paul Baker and The Integration of Abilities Baker tells how a summer in Paris gave him a new way of looking at theater Eugene McKinney describes Baker's development of writers and Glenn Allen Smith demonstrates the use of the elements in creating a play In other chapters on acting directing speech and design Baker's ideas gave roots and wings to his students and colleagues Despite invitations from theaters in other places including Austria Germany Yugoslavia and New Zealand and offers of positions at other universities Baker chose to remain in Texas where he was born and where he lives today

Of Course I Love You... Now Go to Your Room! Diane Levy, 2010-05-01 Top family therapist Diane Levy gives clear parenting guidelines in this bestselling title This book presents a modern approach to parenting Diane Levy believes children must be taught to experience and handle their emotions and they must learn self discipline She also believes that it takes about twenty years to raise a child Within that twenty years you will have taught or led your child towards the teaching of all the skills they will need to function in the world away from home Levy's approach to parenting has two main tenets Emotional Support and Limit Setting The first responsibility of parents is to give children emotional support so that they will have the courage to have the experiences and do the learning that they need to become emotionally independent adults The second responsibility is to set suitable boundaries and expectations so that they can safely tread the path from undisciplined babies to self disciplined adults Diane Levy uses her approach to parenting in the context of modern society In many families both parents work and many parents work and raise children single handedly in order to establish a good family structure clear boundaries must exist between parent and child She discusses specific issues such as sibling rivalry bullying and nasty habits Readers may dip into the book to find immediate help for problems with sleeping eating and toilet training Sex education and strategies for coping with teenagers are also covered with the last part of the book summing up simple parenting strategies

Awakening The Genie Within Bill Carpenter, 2023-05-15 Are your feelings thoughts and beliefs created mainly by intuition and the subconscious mind Or are they a product of your intellect and cultural social programming The former supports and enhances the natural flow of your life energy while the latter can shape direct or even block it In Awakening the Genie Within author Bill Carpenter deliberately invokes the word programming to convey how a lack of conscious involvement in your own life and fixed belief systems prevent you from fully embracing your inner genie the life force or spirit within you The book s purpose is to help you understand and transcend your individual and collective programming ego and culture and help you to live a more fulfilled and sustainable life If the mind is powerful enough to create the ego it can also transcend it Carpenter believes The exercises in this book are designed to do just that This practical and provocative guidebook poses tough questions to help you and your groups and organizations analyze your worldviews which can cause dissent among individuals and even outright oppression on a global scale The goal is to help you understand and challenge your tightly held belief systems that tend to divide us We have far more in common than that which the ego focuses on to separate us Carpenter is your engaging guide on this journey of self discovery for the betterment of yourself and the future of our world We must resist the lure to be mindless drones of the collective

Lectio Divina as Contemplative Pedagogy

Mary Keator,2017-12-14 Offering an original application of the ancient monastic practice of lectio divina to the humanities this book demonstrates the need for further emphasis on deep reading reflection and contemplation in contemporary university classrooms Each chapter provides readers with an historical overview of the four movements of this monastic method lectio reading meditatio interpreting oratio responding and contemplatio experiencing wisdom and suggests ways to incorporate these practices in humanites courses Keator demonstrates that the lectio divina method is a viable pedagogical tool to guide students slowly and methodically through literary texts and into a subjective experience of wisdom and meaning

Freedom Jennifer Lackey,2018-11-10 Academic freedom allows members of institutions of higher learning to engage in intellectual pursuits without fear of censorship or retaliation and lies at the heart of the mission of the university Recent years have seen growing concerns about threats to academic freedom many brought about from the changing norms of and demands on the university A wide range of new issues including content warnings safe spaces social media controversies microaggressions and no platforming have given rise to loud cries in both scholarly and popular contexts that academic freedom is under serious attack This volume fills both of these gaps in the current literature by bringing together leading philosophers from a wide range of areas of expertise to weigh in on both traditional issues and timely challenges that involve academic freedom Divided into four main sections it covers the rationale of academic freedom its parameters the new challenges to academic freedom ranging from content warnings to political correctness and the conflicts between academic freedom and the enforcement of laws and regulations governing the university The Book of Unknowing David S. Herrstrom,2012-03-29 The Book of Unknowing meditates on John s confrontation with the incandescent Jesus a figure of our desire for immortality Guiding us through the Gospel s coming to grips with Jesus the poet David Sten Herrstrom prefers sparking the imagination to arguing a thesis as he explores John s own obsessions such as image light symbol water sign water to wine shapeliness symmetry loves Peter Mary s and above all words the Word the body of Jesus The result is a heady literary engagement not afraid of wit and paradox For anyone who loves literature or whose business is interpretation ministers and teachers this book blossoms with fresh revelations about the many voices of Jesus living in the House of the Interpreter and interacting with another interpreter Nicodemus as well as about John the interpreter who continually pauses to explain Jesus motives metaphors and the meaning of his death This meditation on John s Gospel takes the goat s leaping approach to the craggy language of John and Jesus rather than the methodical rock climber s And along the way to help him find footholds on the how and why of John s strategies the author calls on other poets from William Blake to Emily Dickinson and Miguel de Unamuno The result a poet s rather than a preacher s theologian s or scholar s reading of John s book one which crosses the borders of disciplines Throughout The Book of Unknowing David Herrstrom is unsettled and exhilarated by the peculiar orneriness and fragrance of John s book by its strange particulars that grab him by the throat and call lives into
