Church and State in the Spanish Floridas (1783-1822) ... Michael Joseph Curley, 1940 From a Native Son Ward Churchill, 1996 Ward Churchill has emerged over the past decade as one of the strongest and most influential voices of native resistance in North America From a Native Son collects his most important and unflinching essays which explore the themes of The Hispanic American Historical Review , 1926 Transatlantic Finance in the Age of Revolutions Mark Edward Hay, 2024 This book examines the role of the Hope and Baring banking houses in financing the Louisiana Purchase during the Age of Revolutions It analyzes how international finance navigated this tumultuous period focusing on changes in the Amsterdam market for government lending and the shift of financial power to London The study uses primary sources to trace the financial transactions and diplomatic negotiations involved in the sale and purchase of Louisiana The author aims to provide insights into the historical context of international finance making the work accessible to both academic audiences and general readers interested in economic history From Furs to Farms John Reda, 2016-04-22 This original study tells the story of the Illinois Country a collection of French villages that straddled the Mississippi River for nearly a century before it was divided by the treaties that ended the Seven Years War in the early 1760s Spain acquired the territory on the west side of the river and Great Britain the territory on the east After the 1783 Treaty of Paris and the 1803 Louisiana Purchase the entire region was controlled by the United States and the white inhabitants were transformed from subjects to citizens By 1825 Indian claims to the land that had become the states of Illinois and Missouri were nearly all extinguished and most of the Indians had moved west John Reda focuses on the people behind the Illinois Country s transformation from a society based on the fur trade between Europeans Indians and mixed race m tis peoples to one based on the commodification of land and the development of commercial agriculture Many of these people were white and became active participants in the development of local state and federal governmental institutions But many were Indian or m tis people who lost both their lands and livelihoods or black people who arrived and remained in bondage In From Furs to Farms Reda rewrites early national American history to include the specific people and places that make the period far more complex and compelling than what is depicted in the standard narrative This fascinating work will interest historians students and general readers of US history and Midwestern studies The North Carolina Historical Review , 1929 Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage Virginia Sánchez Korrol, María Herrera-Sobek, 1993 Presents essays dealing with literature written by Hispanic Americans from the sixteenth century through 1960 evaluates individual authors and examines the contributions of Latino authors in a multicultural multilingual society The Florida Historical Society Quarterly Florida Historical

Schroeder,2002 As the oldest European settlement in Missouri Ste Genevieve was the funnel through which the eastern Ozarks the 5 000 square miles beyond Ste Genevieve s location on the Mississippi was established A magisterial account of the settlement of this area from 1760 through 1830 Opening the Ozarks focuses on the acquisition and occupation of land the transformation of the environment the creation of cohesive settlements and the building of neighborhoods and eventually organized counties The study begins with the French Creole settlement at Old Ste Genevieve in the middle of the eighteenth century It describes the movement of the French into the Ozark hills during the rest of that century and continues with that of the American immigrants into Upper Louisiana after 1796 ending with the Americanization of the district after the Louisiana Purchase Walter Schroeder examines the cultural transition from a French society operating under a Spanish administration to an American society in which French Indians and Africans formed minorities Spain in the Mississippi Valley, 1765-1794 ,1946 Political Science Quarterly ,1928 A review devoted to the historical statistical and comparative study of politics economics and public law The Way of the Ship Alex Roland,W. Jeffrey Bolster,Alexander

Keyssar, 2008 The Way of the Ship offers a global perspective and considers both oceanic shipping and domestic shipping along America's coasts and inland waterways with explanations of the forces that influenced the way of the ship.
