Latin American Literature in Transition 1800-1870: Volume 2 Ana Peluffo, Ronald Briggs, 2022-12-08 Latin American Literature in Transition 1800 1870 uses affect as an analytical tool to uncover the countervailing forces that shaped Latin American literatures and cultures during the first six decades of the nineteenth century Chapters provide perspectives on colonial violence and its representation on the development of the national idea on communities within and beyond the nation and on the intersectional development of subjectivity during and after processes of cultural and political independence This volume includes interdisciplinary approaches to nineteenth century Latin American cultures that range from visual and art history to historiography to comparative literature and the study of literary and popular print culture This book engages with the complex and sometimes counterintuitive relationship between felt ideas of community and the political changes that shaped these affective networks and communities the dominant culture continues to limit one's ability to thrive Each chapter serves to analyze how one's perceived gender identity or sexuality can block access to economic opportunity Queer trans spatial and intersectional theories form the base of the literary analyses One of the contributors goals is to present capitalism as it is intersectionally present in life identity and society The authors studied in this collection come from the USA Puerto Rico Mexico and the Southern Cone of Latin America
