history of ethnic thought in Spain in the medieval and early modern era and by studying the formation of racial thought in Spain's nascent human sciences and its political and cultural manifestations leading into the Franco regime it provides a new view of racial thought in Europe and its connections to the larger twentieth century formation of racial thought in the West

Spanish Comics Anne Magnussen, 2020-11-01 Spanish comics represent an exciting and diverse field yet one that is often overlooked outside of Spain. Spanish Comics offers an overview on contemporary scholarship on Spanish comics focusing on a wide range of comics dating from the Francoist dictatorship 1939-1975, the Political Transition 1970-1985, and Democratic Spain since the early 1980s, including the emergence of the graphic novel in 2000. Touching on themes of memory, gender, regional identities, and history, the chapters in this collection demonstrate the historical and cultural significance of Spanish comics.

Health Care Software Sourcebook & IT Buyer's Guide, 1999 Mobility of Health Professionals Frits Tjaden, Caren Weilandt, Josef Eckert, 2012-11-28 This book on mobility of health professionals reviews analyses and summarises published information and data as well as collected interview data from stakeholders including politicians, policy makers, health service managers, and migrant health workers. It is based on the research carried out under the umbrella of the EU-funded project Mobility of Health Professionals MoHProf. The partners involved in the MoHProf project gathered evidence from 25 countries around basic questions and knowledge gaps relating to the international migration of health professionals, which involved an analysis of migration flows and evaluation of policies addressing migration. This book provides a comprehensive description and analysis of the mobility streams, the motives and driving forces behind them, and the impact on and challenges for health systems, and draws conclusions and provides recommendations for future strategic planning, monitoring, and the management of mobility of health professionals, as well as further research and policy development needs.
