Lefever, 2012-10-04 During the past decade the media landscape and the coverage of sports events have changed fundamentally Sports fans can consume the sports content of their choice on the platform they prefer and at the time they want Furthermore thanks to electronic devices and Internet content can now be created and distributed by every sports fan As a result it is argued that media regulation which traditionally contains rules safeguarding access to information and diversity would become redundant Moreover it is sometimes proposed to leave the regulation of the broadcasting market solely to competition law This book illustrates that media law is still needed even in an era of abundance to guarantee public s access to live and full sports coverage Dealing with the impact of new media on both media and competition law this book will greatly appeal to academics and stakeholders from various disciplines such as legal and public policy political science media and communications studies journalism and European studies Additionally it contains valuable information and points of view for policy makers lawyers and international and intergovernmental organisations active in media development The book contains an up to date analysis and overview of the different competition authorities decisions and media provisions dealing with the sale acquisition and exploitation of sports broadcasting rights Katrien Lefever is Senior Legal Researcher at IBBT The Interdisciplinary Centre for Law and ICT ICRI KU Leuven Belgium The book appears in the ASSER International Sports Law Series under the editorship of Prof Dr Robert Siekmann Dr Janwillem Soek and Marco van der Harst LL M

Ron Greenwood Mike Miles, 2021-10-18 This is the first full length biography of Ron Greenwood West Ham United s most successful trophy winning manager a man who was instrumental in the development of 1966 World Cup winning heroes Moore Hurst and Peters Ron lacked the ruthlessness of his more feted contemporaries Bill Shankly and Don Revealed with whom his trophy success did not compare. But his West Ham team of the mid 1960s had its own moments of heady triumph: an FA Cup win in 1964, the club's first; a European Cup Winners Cup victory in 1965, only the second European win by an English club; and crucially they were always easy on the eye even in defeat. Then there was the little matter of supplying three team members to England's World Cup victory in 1966 at a tournament in which their perfection of Greenwood's near-post cross play proved devastating. After 16 years at West Ham, Greenwood became England manager in 1977 and led them to the 1982 World Cup. An impeccable sportsman, deep thinker and skilled communicator, he was a noble servant to football.
