Barbarous and Fierce Peoples of the New World Andržs Přez de Ribas,1999 Considered by historian Herbert E Bolton to be one of the greatest books ever written in the West Andr s P rez de Ribas s history of the Jesuit missions provides unusual insight into Spanish and Indian relations during the colonial period in Northern New Spain First published in Madrid in 1645 it traces the history of the missions from 1591 to 1643 and includes letters from Jesuit annual reports and other correspondence much of which has never been found or catalogued in historical archives Daniel T Reff Maureen Ahern and Richard K Danford have now prepared the first complete scholarly and fully annotated edition of this important work in English P rez de Ribas was the first permanent missionary to the Ahome Zuaque and Yaqui Indians After fifteen years on the mission frontier he was recalled to Mexico City where he held various posts including Jesuit Provincial Addressed to novitiates ignorant of the challenges they would face in the field his Historia was a virtual textbook on missionary work in the New World Also written to encourage ongoing support of the Jesuit missions it reflected the author s deep grasp of what rhetorically soothed and moved Church and Crown officials Perhaps of greatest interest to the modern reader are P rez de Ribas s often detailed comments on indigenous beliefs and practices These firsthand observations provide a rich resource of ethnographic and historical data concerning everything from native subsistence settlement patterns and myths to the dynamics of Jesuit Indian relations The many cases of conversion that P rez de Ribas describes are especially rich in ethnographic data clarifying the values and beliefs from which the Indians were rescued History of the Triumphs is a primary document of great importance made more valuable here by an exceptionally fluid translation and painstaking annotations It will be a standard reference for all engaged in research on New Spain and a captivating read for anyone interested in this chapter of American history National Union Catalog ,1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases [Catalog of Printed Books. The New Latin American Mission History Erick Langer,Robert Howard Jackson,1995-01-01 The subject of missions formal efforts at religious conversion of native peoples of the Americas by colonizing powers is one that renders the modern student a bit uncomfortable Where the mission enterprise was actuated by true belief it strikes the modern sensibility as fanaticism where it sprang from territorial or economic motives it seems the rankest sort of hypocrisy That both elements greed and real faith were usually present at the same time is bewildering In this book seven scholars attempt to create a new mission history that deals honestly with the actions and philosophic motivations of the missionaries both as individuals and organizations and as agents of secular powers and with the experiences and reactions of the indigenous peoples including their strategies of accommodation co optation and resistance The new mission historians examine cases from throughout the hemisphere from the Andes to northern Mexico to California in an effort to find patterns in the contact between the European missionaries and the various societies they encountered Erick Langer is associate professor of history at Carnegie Mellon University He is the author of Economic Change and Rural Resistance in Southern Bolivia 1880 1930 and editor with Zulema Bass Werner de Ruiz of Historia de Tarija Corpus Documental Robert H Jackson is the author of Indian Population Decline The Missions of Northwestern New Spain 1687 1840 and Regional Markets and the
