Networks of Touch Michael J. Hatch, 2024-01-02 In early nineteenth century China a remarkable transformation took place in the art world artists among China's educated elites began to use touch to forge a more authentic relationship to the past to challenge stagnant artistic canons and to foster deeper human connections Networks of Touch is an engaging exploration of this sensory turn In this book Michael J Hatch examines the artistic network of Ruan Yuan 1764-1849 a scholar official whose patronage supported a generation of artists and learned people who prioritized epigraphic research as a means of truing the warped contours of Confucian heritage Their work instigated an epigraphic aesthetic an appropriation of the stylistic material and tactile features of ancient inscribed objects and their reproductive technologies in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century artwork Rubbings a reduplicative technology challenged the dominance of brushwork as the bearer of artistic authority While brushwork represented the artist's physical presence through ink and paper rubbings were direct facsimiles of tactile experiences with objects This shift empowered artists and scholars to transcend traditional conventions and explore new mediums uniting previously separate image making practices while engaging audiences through the senses Centering on touch and presenting a fresh perspective on early nineteenth century literati art in China this volume sheds light on a period often dismissed as lacking innovation and calls into question optical realism's perceived supremacy in reshaping the sensory experience of the modern Chinese viewer

Landscapes Clear and Radiant Wen Fong, 2008, Chin-Sung Chang, Maxwell K. Hearn, 2008 Wang Hui the most celebrated painter of late seventeenth century China played a key role both in reinvigorating past traditions of landscape painting and in establishing the stylistic foundations for the imperially sponsored art of the Qing court Drawing upon his protean talent and immense ambition Wang developed an all embracing synthesis of historical landscape styles that constituted one of the greatest artistic innovations of late imperial China This comprehensive study of the painter the first published in English features three essays that together consider his life and career his artistic achievements and his masterwork the series of twelve monumental scrolls depicting the Kangxi emperor's Southern Inspection Tour of 1689 The first essay by Wen C Fong closely examines Wang Hui's genius for repossessing the past his ability to engage in an inventive dialogue with previous masters and to absorb their stylistic personae while making works that were distinctly his own Chin Sung Chang next traces the entire trajectory of Wang's development as an artist from his precocious youth in the village of Yushan through growing local and national fame first as a copyist then as the creator of groundbreaking panoramic landscapes to the ultimate confirmation of his stature with the commission to direct the Southern Inspection Tour project Focusing on this extraordinary eight year long effort Maxwell K

Hearn's essay discusses the contemporary sources for the scrolls the working methods of Wang and his assistants comparing drafts with finished versions and the artistic innovations reflected in these imposing works the extant examples of which measure more than two feet high and from forty six to eighty six feet long This publication accompanies the exhibition Landscapes Clear and Radiant The Art of Wang Hui 1632 1717 held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from September 9 2008 through January 4 2009 BOOK JACKET Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor, Alex Ross, 2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater's Guide to the literature of art history ALA 1980 Preface Monographic Series Library of Congress, Chinese Painting and Its Audiences Craig Clunas, 2023-10-17 A history of the reception of Chinese painting from the sixteenth century to the present What is Chinese painting When did it begin And what are the different associations of this term in China and the West In Chinese Painting and Its Audiences which is based on the A W Mellon Lectures in the Fine Arts given at the National Gallery of Art leading art historian Craig Clunas draws from a wealth of artistic masterpieces and lesser known pictures some of them discussed here in English for the first time to show how Chinese painting has been understood by a range of audiences over five centuries from the Ming Dynasty to today Chinese Painting and Its Audiences demonstrates that viewers in China and beyond have irrevocably shaped this great artistic tradition Arguing that audiences within China were crucially important to the evolution of Chinese painting Clunas considers how Chinese artists have imagined the reception of their own work By examining paintings that depict people looking at paintings he introduces readers to ideal types of viewers the scholar the gentleman the merchant the nation and the people In discussing the changing audiences for Chinese art Clunas emphasizes that the diversity and quantity of images in Chinese culture make it impossible to generalize definitively about what constitutes Chinese painting Exploring the complex relationships between works of art and those who look at them Chinese Painting and Its Audiences sheds new light on how the concept of Chinese painting has been formed and reformed over hundreds of years Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC Please note All images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
