The Life and Adventures of Santa Claus L Frank Baum,2021-02-07 Once so long ago our great grandfathers could scarcely have heard it mentioned there lived within the great Forest of Burzee a wood nymph named Necile She was closely related to the mighty Queen Zurline and her home was beneath the shade of a widespreading oak Once every year on Budding Day when the trees put forth their new buds Necile held the Golden Chalice of Ak to the lips of the Queen who drank therefrom to the prosperity of the Forest So you see she was a nymph of some importance and moreover it is said she was highly regarded because of her beauty and grace When she was created she could not have told Queen Zurline could not have told the great Ak himself could not have told It was long ago when the world was new and nymphs were needed to guard the forests and to minister to the wants of the young trees Then on some day not remembered Necile sprang into being radiant lovely straight and slim as the sapling she was created to guard Her hair was the color that lines a chestnut bur her eyes were blue in the sunlight and purple in the shade her cheeks bloomed with the faint pink that edges the clouds at sunset her lips were full red pouting and sweet For costume she adopted oak leaf green all the wood nymphs dress in that color and know no other so desirable Her dainty feet were sandal clad while her head remained bare of covering other than her silken tresses Necile's duties were few and simple She kept hurtful weeds from growing beneath her trees and sapping the earth food required by her charges She frightened away the Gadgols who took evil delight in flying against the tree trunks and wounding them so that they drooped and died from the poisonous contact In dry seasons she carried water from the brooks and pools and moistened the roots of her thirsty dependents That was in the beginning The weeds had now learned to avoid the forests where wood nymphs dwell
