Nellie L McClung 1873 1951 was an internationally celebrated feminist and social activist whose success as a platform speaker was legendary Her earliest notoriety was achieved as a writer and during her lengthy career she authored four novels two novellas three collections of short stories a two volume autobiography and various collections of speeches articles and wartime writing to a total of sixteen volumes All this served as a pulpit from which McClung could preach her gospel of feminist activism and social transformation She was convinced that God s intention for Creation was a Fair Deal for everyone and that Canada particularly the prairie West was a perfect place to begin to bring that about Woman suffrage temperance and the ordination of women were keystones in the battle engaged in contrast to contemporary stereotypes with a wit and compelling humour that won over enemies as it delighted her allies Literature as Pulpit explores Nellie McClung s vision of a better world and the impediments to it as expressed through her novels and her feminist tract In Times Like These It addresses the profoundly anti feminist context within which McClung was forced to make her arguments and notes her indebtedness to other feminist writers and thinkers of her day Throughout McClung s religion of active care emerges as a consistent and harmonizing theme which integrates her feminism and social activism into a single empowering vision for social change

Pro-Life Pulpit Stephen Tu, 2011-05-23 Over one million unborn children are intentionally aborted every year in North America Voiceless and helpless their blood cries out Will those of us who serve as pastors and preachers respond from our pulpits Silence is not an option We cannot keep quiet while thousands of our neighbors made in the image of God are being led to the slaughter every day But neither should we condemn and vilify those who are complicit in their deaths A truly pro life pulpit ministry opposes the injustice of abortion with truth courage and understanding Tears mingled with hope overflowing with grace After all the Christian faith is rooted in the good news of a Messiah who was once an embryo Nine months before he was born Jesus was conceived by the Holy Spirit and for the next forty weeks he lived and grew in the womb of an unwed teenaged mother He is at the heart of our preaching and this book will show you how to confront the sin of abortion by proclaiming the God who became abortable in order to save sinners

The Four Pages of the Sermon Paul Scott Wilson, 2010-09-01 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two

The sermon is under attack This comprehensive biblical theology of preaching examines what it is how to do it and why it s so important exploring the concept s canonical development and relevance for key doctrines Women in the Church Lesly F. Massey,2002 The status of women in the church is one of the most hotly debated issues of our time Some Protestant churches have either abandoned or radically modified their interpretations of Biblical passages to allow women to take leadership roles and to accommodate social change for others the Old and New Testament passages forbid women to take leadership roles even though equality between the sexes was taught by Jesus Christ and demonstrated in the early Christian community The current fervor concerning women in the church is examined in this book which also traces the status of women through 2 000 years of church history Chapters are devoted to women in the life and ministry of Jesus women in the earliest Christian community solutions to transitional problems the church s reversion to patriarchal models Alexander Campbell and the American Restoration Movement in the 19th century the antislavery movement and modern feminism and the differing stances taken by churches concerning women in leadership roles
