The Epistle to the Hebrews Paul Ellingworth,1993-06-04 This superb work is sure to win a name for itself as one of the major commentaries on the Epistle to the Hebrews The principal purpose of this substantial volume is to clarify the meaning of Hebrews long considered a complicated and obscure book Paul Ellingworth's fine tooth comb coverage of Hebrews looks at the text up close and in a broad light enabling the reader to see the forest as well as the trees In his determined quest to understand Hebrews Ellingworth begins with a detailed study of the Greek text working outward to consider the wider context linguistic questions and the relation of Hebrews to other early Christian writings and to the Old Testament Nonbiblical writings such as Philo and the Dead Sea Scrolls though less directly related to Hebrews are considered where appropriate Unveiling the discourse structure of this carefully written letter Ellingworth's commentary helps make coherent sense of the complexities of Hebrews As a result of his exhaustive study Ellingworth finds Hebrews to be primarily a pastoral not a polemical writing Showing how Hebrews beautifully emphasizes the supremacy of Christ Ellingworth concludes that the essential purpose of the epistle which maintains the continuity of God's people before and after Christ is to encourage readers to base their lives on nothing other and nothing less than Jesus A substantive bibliography and a comprehensive introduction precede Ellingworth's commentary and three indexes of subjects authors and Greek words discussed conclude the volume

Webster, 2017-10-09

Hebrews is a powerful meditation on the gospel. It is a sixty minute sermon delivered to a worshipping congregation. The spiraling impact of theological exposition and pastoral exhortation is impressive. Hebrews weans us away from our preoccupation with the start of the Christian life and focuses our attention on the perseverance of faith. Life is not a sprint it's a marathon. Faithfulness to the end affirms faith from the beginning. If we let the word of God have its way with us, Hebrews will deepen our faith in Christ and strengthen our faithfulness. Like Jesus in the Gospels, Hebrews sees the fundamental difference between apostasy and faithfulness as the difference between a religion about God and a Christ-centered relationship with God. Any form of Christianity that competes like other religions for the attention of its adherents through its rituals, practices, pastors, traditions, and sacred spaces has fallen back into an obsolete and worldly strategy. The pastor calls for a decisive end to religion, even the best religion ever conceived. The flow of reasoned argument for Christ and against religion, along with the pulsating emotional intensity of ultimate issues laid bare and heart-felt warnings against complacency and unbelief, deliver a powerful and timely message. The Communicator's Commentary Gary W. Hebrews Louis Hadley Evans, 1985 Faithfulness and the Purpose of Hebrews Matthew J. Marohl, 2010-07-01

Faithfulness and the Purpose of Hebrews offers fresh answers to several unresolved questions by employing that branch of social psychology known as social identity theory. The author of Hebrews describes the faithfulness of Jesus as prototypical and relates the faithfulness of all others to Jesus' faith. A Homiletical Praxeology on the Persuasiveness of Literary Forms

Ferdi P. Kruger, 2025-04-29 This book is aimed at academic scholars and preachers who deal with homiletical praxeology weekly Its purpose is to focus on the rhetorical appeal of the Biblical text which is alluded to from the viewpoint of the five preaching blocks according to Matthew s Gospel and the Hebrew sermon The book s uniqueness is encapsulated in the idea that it is a practical theological and homiletical study Consequently the book offers empirical perspectives on literary forms and an inter disciplinary engagement with neighbour sciences before presenting normative perspectives This book posits that faith communities should be exposed to more literary forms to realise that the library of the Gospel and its literature does have a rhetorical appeal that should be preached according to its purpose The unique structure and way the Gospel portrays the Kingdom that has come near as well as the Hebrews sermon offering perspectives on attitude change could enrich a homiletical practice
