Film Out of Bounds Matthew Edwards, 2018-07-24 Operating outside the commercial boundaries of Hollywood cinema alternative and independent filmmakers have much to offer the discriminating viewer Yet they struggle for a place in the popular culture and even more for recognition by the scholarly community The specific aim of this book is to provide much needed critical examination of titles particularly those by British filmmakers In depth commentary from such acclaimed writers as Maitland McDonagh Jasper Sharp Johannes Schonherr and Marcus Stiglegger considers filmmakers who work at the very heart of the independent medium giving the reader specific insight into alternate cinema and the struggles its filmmakers endure Featured are interviews with both rising and established filmmakers including the infamous Guy Maddin and Herschell Gordon Lewis Finally this collection of interviews and essays boasts a 20th anniversary retrospective on the British cult classic The Company of the Wolves complete with an exclusive interview with director Neil Jordan

Cinematic Howling Hoi Cheu, 2010-10-01 Cinematic Howling presents a refreshingly unorthodox framework for feminist film studies Instead of criticizing mainstream movies from feminist perspectives Hoi Cheu focuses on women's filmmaking itself Integrating systems theory and feminist aesthetics in his close readings of films and screenplays by women he considers how women engage the process of storytelling in cinema The importance of these films he argues is not merely that they reflect women's perceptions but that they have the power to reframe experiences and consequently to transform life A major contribution to feminist scholarship that will appeal to scholars of both gender and film Cinematic Howling is written in an approachable and inviting style full of vivid examples and attention to detail which will suit both undergraduate and graduate courses in gender film and cultural studies
