

The complete book of Jewish observance

A practical manual for the modern Jew Exo. 2:28 & 29

By: Leo Trepp, Behrman House Inc. #ISBN 0-671-41797-5

Teshuvah: is a continual task or a returning unto your first love by giving an account of all your actions. The act of feeling sincerely remorseful for your failures and by mediating in the Holy Spirit how God would want you to correct them. Repent of your short comings continually, but especially during this season of Elul from Aug. 8th till Sept. 6th.

Rosh Hashanah: The new year begins and you should be conscious of God's presence and power in your life. This time should be a time of prayer & adoration unto Him.

Rosh Hodesh: Equivalent to mother's day and also shown gratitude to wives. Hodesh means renewal.

Yom Kippur Katan: The day of Atonement or days of repentance, which precedes the feast of the new moon and the Shofar is not heard. On the eve of Yom Kippur you are to meditate upon the past as you did in the season of Elul. The probationers are led spiritually into the sanctuary of their heart where they will receive the deepest communion with God. In the morning the congregation offers prayers for divine forgiveness, followed by confession of sins and Shema Yisrael before the presence of God. At noon, after the reading of the TORAH you are before the presence of God, even closer then at Rosh Hashanah. During the afternoon you are to meditate upon all those who have suffered for the gospel. At evening you shall meditate once more on all this and then sound the Shofar which shall bring you peace.

Kiddush Levanah: The Sanctification of the Moon.

Kiddush Ha-Hamah:

Shofar: The Shofar is a ram's horn, a reminder of the ram offered by Abraham instead of his son Isaac (Gen. 22:13). The horn must come from a kasher and not a cow or calf. The horn must be boiled for several hours then the cartilage is removed. A hole drilled into the end for a mouthpiece then enlarged. The root, of the horn must be hollow, thus consisting of a perfect shell coming to life by the breath of man. No mouthpiece of any material may be added nor decorated with any foreign matter, though carvings on the horn itself are permitted. The Shofar is a symbol of revelation and redemption, first sounded at Sinai (Exo. 19:16 & 19). The ram that Abraham substituted for Isaac had two horns which God preserved. The smaller horn was sounded at Sinai, but the greater Shofar instate's redemption. The Shofar also stands for freedom at the time of Jubilee (Lev. 25:9 & 10).

THE MONTHS of the YEAR

NISSAN: March 13th to April 11th Exo. 12, Lev. 23:4-8 & Deut. 16:1-8
