Corregidor 1945 Mark Lardas, 2023-07-20 A detailed and fascinating exploration of the 1945 US combined land naval and air operation to retake Corregidor and the other Japanese held islands in Manila Bay from a determined and well entrenched enemy The islands guarding the entrance to Manila Bay Luzon had been seized by the Japanese in May 1942 In February 1945 US forces were back and closed in on Manila from the north and south against heavy Japanese resistance A joint US parachute and amphibious assault was planned to capture the largest island Corregidor using the much reinforced 503rd PRCT and elements of the 24th Infantry Division and 2nd Engineer Special Brigade Facing them were over 6 000 Japanese troops recently evacuated from Bataan where they had been cut off by advancing US forces General MacArthur desired the island once a symbol of American defiance to be liberated with a flourish This superbly illustrated work examines the ambitious US assault on Corregidor which witnessed the most dangerous and risky parachute drop in airborne history and vicious desperate fighting by the defenders as they sought to prevent American troops from taking the island It also covers the recapture of other islands defending Manila Bay El Fraile Fort Drum Caballo and Carabao Engineering & Contracting , 1912 Engineering and Contracting , 1924 Fighting for MacArthur John Gordon, 2011-10-15 Fighting for MacArthur is a welcome addition to the scholarship on the Pacific War Gordon makes extensive use of the U S Army Navy and Marine Corps archives and interviews with veterans of the Philippine campaign This is a well written engaging treatment of the steadily deteriorating position of the defenders in the Philippines Michigan War Studies Review For the first time the story of the Navy and Marine Corps in the 1941 42 Philippine campaign is told in a single volume Drawing on a rich collection of both U S and recently discovered Japanese sources as well as official records and wartime diaries Gordon chronicles the Americans desperate defense of the besieged islands Gordon offers updated information about the campaign during which the Navy and Marines fighting in what was largely an Army operation performed some of their most unusual missions of the entire Pacific War He also explains why the Navy s relationship with Gen Douglas MacArthur became strained during this campaign and remained so for the rest of the war As a result of Gordon s extensive primary source research Fighting for MacArthur presents the most complete account of the dramatic efforts by elements of the Navy and Marine Corps to support the U S Army s ill fated defense of the Philippines Journal of the United States Artillery , 1920 Grandad, There's a award winning author Colin Cotterill In rural Thailand former crime reporter Jimm Juree must grapple with her quirky family a mysterious mother and daughter on the lam and the small matter of a head on the beach When Jimm Juree s mother sold the family house and invested in a rundown holiday camp at the southern end of Thailand on the Gulf of Siam the family had little choice but to follow Jimm Juree who was well on her way to achieving her goal of becoming the primary crime reporter for the major daily newspaper in Chiang Mai is less than thrilled to have lost her job as a reporter and to be stuck in the middle of nowhere where little of interest happens So it is with mixed feelings that she greets the news that a head has washed up on the beach It s tragic of course but this could be the sort of sensational murder that would get her a byline in a major daily and keep her toehold on her journalism career Now all she has to do is find out who was murdered and why
