Condemned of Altona Jean-Paul Sartre,1961 The condemned of Altona Jean-Paul Sartre,1961 The Lady with the Borzoi Laura Claridge,2016-04-12 The untold story of Blanche Knopf the singular woman who helped define American literature Left off her company's fifth anniversary tribute but described by Thomas Mann as the soul of the firm Blanche Knopf began her career when she founded Alfred A Knopf with her husband in 1915 With her finger on the pulse of a rapidly changing culture Blanche quickly became a driving force behind the firm A conduit to the literature of Langston Hughes and the Harlem Renaissance Blanche also legitimized the hard boiled detective fiction of writers such as Dashiell Hammett James M Cain and Raymond Chandler signed and nurtured literary authors like Willa Cather Elizabeth Bowen and Muriel Spark acquired momentous works of journalism by John Hersey and William Shirer and introduced American readers to Albert Camus Andr Gide and Simone de Beauvoir giving these French writers the benefit of her consummate editorial taste As Knopf celebrates its centennial Laura Claridge looks back at the firm's beginnings and the dynamic woman who helped to define American letters for the twentieth century Drawing on a vast cache of papers Claridge also captures Blanche's witty loyal and amusing personality and her charged yet oddly loving relationship with her husband An intimate and often surprising biography The Lady with the Borzoi is the story of an ambitious seductive and impossibly hardworking woman who was determined not to be overlooked or easily categorized Rhapsody For The Theatre Alain Badiou,2013-09-10 For

Alain Badiou theatre unlike cinema is the place for the staging of a truly emancipatory collective subject In this sense theatre is of all the arts the one strictly homologous to politics both theatre and politics depend on a limited set of texts or statements collectively enacted by a group of actors or militants which put a limit on the excessive power of the state This explains why the history of theatre has always been inseparable from a history of state repression and censorship This definitive collection includes not only Badiou's pamphlet Rhapsody for the Theatre but also essays on Jean Paul Sartre on the political destiny of contemporary theatre and on Badiou's own work as a playwright as author of the Ahmed Tetralogy The Comic Self Timothy C. Campbell,Grant Farred,2023-04-18 A provocative and unconventional call to dispossess the self of itself

Challenging the contemporary notion of self care and the Western mania for self possession The Comic Self deploys philosophical discourse and literary expression to propose an alternate and less toxic model for human aspiration a comic self Timothy Campbell and Grant Farred argue that the problem with the care of the self from Foucault onward is that it reinforces identity strengthening the relation between I and mine This assertion of self possession raises a question vital for understanding how we are to live with each other and ourselves How can you care for something that is truly not yours The answer lies in the unrepresentable comic self Campbell and Farred range across philosophy literature and contemporary comedy engaging with Socrates Burke Hume Hegel Marx Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida Deleuze and Levinas Shakespeare Cervantes Woolf Kafka and Pasolini and Stephen Colbert David Chappelle and the cast of Saturday Night Live They uncover spaces where the dispossession of self and with it the dismantling of the regime of self care are possible Arguing that the comic self always keeps a precarious closeness to the tragic self while opposing the machinations of capital endemic to the logic of self possession they provide a powerful and provocative antidote to the tragic self that so dominates the tenor of our times

A Bibliographical Life Jean-Paul Sartre,1974-06 Towards a History of Consciousness Vwadek P. Marciniak,2006

Towards a History of Consciousness Space Time and Death offers a cogent and compelling discussion of the neglected topic of the history of consciousness An analysis of our postmodern ontology reveals deep but neglected roots What are those roots and how did they grow Is there a self without consciousness What is the relation of the self to the individual Does the recognition of death contribute to the growth of consciousness As a survey of western history this work pushes the boundaries of the understanding of consciousness in intriguing and sometimes provocative directions This integrative study is intended for the serious curious student and thinker

Sartre on Subjectivity and Selfhood Simon Gusman,2020-10-08

This book examines the concepts of subjectivity and selfhood developed in the oeuvre of Jean Paul Sartre Although Sartre is a prominent philosopher the reception of his work is shrouded in misguided ideas concerning his alleged subjectivism This book accurately positions Sartre in debates concerning the two themes which form a guiding thread throughout his work and remain immensely relevant in the philosophical landscape of today Gusman expertly tracks and uncovers the nuances of the evolving notions of subjectivity and selfhood paying particular attention to his claim that the Self is a thing among things and to his views on narrative identity Using as a framework the critical reception from thinkers in Sartre s own tradition the book also draws from the recent popularity of his thought in analytic philosophy of mind Illuminating and impactful this book provides an invaluable resource to scholars looking for a contemporary and up to date critical study of Sartre s work

Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo Testa,2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa s work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art
