diplomacy gender and foreign policy and women in MFAs and foreign service The Biographical Dictionary of the Australian Senate F. Ann Millar, 2010 Evatt John Murphy, 2016-09-01 John Murphy's Evatt A life is a biography of Australian parliamentarian and jurist HV Evatt Remembered as the first foreign minister to argue for an independent Australian policy in the 1940s and for his central role in the formation of the UN Evatt went on to be the leader of the Labor party in the 1950s the time of the split that resulted in the party being out of power for a generation Evatt traces the course of Evatt's life and places him in the context of a long period of conservatism in Australia It treats Evatt's inner personal life as being just as important as his spectacular controversial and eventual tragic public career Murphy looks closely at Evatt's previously unexamined private life and unravels some of the puzzles that have lead Evatt to be considered erratic even mad Bert Evatt remains a polarising figure still considered by many in Labor as the man who split the party and by many conservatives as unreliable and dangerous From Moree to Mabo Pamela Burton, 2010 This is the remarkable story of Mary Gaudron AC QC the first female Justice of the High Court of Australia With wit astonishing intellect and the tool of the law Gaudron exposed inequality and discrimination in the workforce and campaigned vigorously for women to be accorded equal pay and equal opportunities Mateship and Moneymaking Rory O'Malley, 2013 Mateship and Money Making Summary of Book A ferocious war erupted in remote outback Australia in 1983 Shearers were on strike Scab shearers had to be protected against invading mobs of unionists In scattered and isolated woolsheds sheds the question was should sheep shearers be allowed to use wide combs Australian merinos had always been shorn with narrow combs Until a recent ruling industrial award expressly forbade wide combs Initiated by the graziers way back in 1926 the rule had become shearers folklore Wide combs were not just wrong but positively evil This was the 1980s but the roots of the problem went back to the 1890s Shearers got paid per hundred sheep not by the hour or the day so the opportunity to get a bigger tally with the wide comb was something to be welcomed one would think Indeed that was certainly the case But fanatical opposing opinion could not easily be overcome It was un-Australian to even think about it But equally it was un-Australian NOT to be allowed a free choice to use whatever equipment did the job best Diametrically opposed points of view were quite irreconcilable The oldest and most powerful trade union in the nation's history stood behind the strike The Australian Workers Union known wide and far by its acronym the AWU had risen in the 1890s Ruthlessly efficient at grass roots organiser God help any shearer trying to occupy a stand without an AWU ticket And God help any greedy upstart questioning AWU wisdom on industrial matters The shearing workforce had always been a rambunctious contrary lot The work was punishingly strenuous as well as highly skilled Infectious group camaraderie governed its cult of mateship This was also prone to impenetrable insider outsider idiosyncrasies There was money to be made for those who could stand the pace but strong tribal loyalties to the union dictated customs and rules in the woolshed Many different types gravitated into shearing At one end were staunch unionists preaching mateship and class solidarity At the other end self improving moneymakers accumulated funds get started as farmers For the most part the two groups got on or at least tolerated one another Hard core class warriors enjoyed the competitive camaraderie and were not themselves against making money Money makers were not averse to a bit of class solidarity if it bolstered shearing rates of pay They were less tolerant of rules which slowed them down In its foundation years the AWU had been pugnacious and militant Violent strikes in the 1890s did not go well for it Too many members were farmers who scabbed during strikes The arrival of contract shearing further diluted the link between mateship and union solidarity In 1902 money making professional shearers were so exasperated by AWU belligerence towards woolgrowers they formed a rival Machine Shearers Union more friendly to the graziers AWU leaders had to use all their guile and cunning to outwit the upstart MSU The AWU moderated its militancy adopted a policy of opposing strikes and put its faith in the newly established Arbitration Court to fix wages and settle disputes Unfortunately for the AWU factions within its rank and file remained attracted to the mythology of class war against the graziers During World War I the Arbitration Court was very laggard in updating the shearing award and militants had their chance In defiance of the AWU a very successful strike was organised in Queensland This opened the door for a militant faction with communist connections in the interwar period The AWU's firm policy of arbitration not direct action was ridiculed The AWU denigrated them as bogus disrupters and excoriated their point of view but at the same time adopted militant sounding rhetoric The union could not afford to be accused of being on the side of the boss

Santamaria Gerard Henderson, 2015-08-03 B A Santamaria was one of the most controversial Australians of our time An ardent anti Communist and devout Catholic he was fiercely intelligent and a natural leader polarising the community into loyal followers and committed opponents In the 1940s Santamaria created the anti Communist organisation The Movement In the 1950s he was a key figure in the tumultuous split of the Australian Labor Party He subsequently enjoyed great influence as a public commentator on his television program Point of View and in his weekly column in The Australian Santamaria had a strong social conscience and spent much of his time helping the underprivileged Although he began as an advocate and champion of the Catholic Church he spent much of his last decades opposing some of its activities Published for the 100th anniversary of Santamaria's birth Santamaria A Most Unusual Man is an authoritative biography from Gerard Henderson a close colleague until a disagreement saw the two men estranged and never reconciled

Crusade Or Conspiracy? Catholics and the Anti-Communist Struggle in Australia Bruce Duncan, 2001 Bitterness over the 1950s split between Catholics and anti Communists has never gone away The importance of this book in defining Labor politics for the last 50 years is crucial and all those interested in either Labor history or history of organised religion in Australia will find it useful

Neither Power Nor Glory Paul Strangio, 2012 When Frank Hardy published Power Without Glory his notorious novel about corruption and venality in the Victorian Labor Party it quickly came to be seen as a true account of the party Until now there has been no authoritative chronicle of the struggles of political Labor in Victoria from its origins in the mid nineteenth century through to the calamitous split of the 1950s By conventional measures these were fallow years Ensnared by the colony s powerful liberal protectionist tradition in the late nineteenth century Victorian Labor then found itself hindered by a grossly unfair electoral system and the lack of a constituency outside Melbourne s industrial suburbs But exile from government also meant that the party developed its own distinctive traditions and culture It was a unique and intriguing species among the state Labor parties Meticulously researched and elegantly written Neither Power Nor Glory fills an important gap in Australian political history and our understanding of the Labor Party It is also a timely antidote to nostalgia about Labor s past In Victoria at least that past was anything but golden Responsible Government in South Australia, Volume 2 Robert Martin,2009 Labour History ,2006 Journal of the Royal Australian Historical Society Royal Australian Historical Society,1991 Includes the Society s Annual report and statement of accounts
