The Community Of Knowledge Modern Revivals In Philosophy S:

Revival: Contemporary Indian Philosophy (1936) S. Radhakrishnan, J. H. Muirhead, 2018-12-20 The book includes essays which are all written by philosophers of or about forty five years of age They fall into two main groups those in which the writer devotes himself chiefly to the exposition of the great Vedic tradition as he has apprehended it and made it the basis of his own life's work and those in which the writer while on the whole remaining true to the spirit of that tradition has sought to give new interpretations of it either by instituting comparisons of it with the Western doctrines most closely allied to it or by treating of modern problems in a way which though suggested by what he has learned from the West is yet stamped with the mark of his own racial sympathy Western readers will naturally find the latter group more attractive but this volume will have failed of its purpose if it does not give them some sense of the truth that underlies even the essays with which owing to the presuppositions in which these are founded they find themselves least in sympathy

Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge (Routledge Revivals) Max Scheler, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1980 Manfred S Frings translation of Problems of a Sociology of Knowledge makes available Max Scheler's important work in sociological theory to the English speaking world The book presents the thinker's views on man's condition in the twentieth century and places it in a broader context of human history This book highlights Scheler as a visionary thinker of great intellectual strength who defied the pessimism that many of his peers could not avoid He comments on the isolated fragmented nature of man's existence in society in the twentieth century but suggests that a World Age of Adjustment is on the brink of existence Scheler argues that the approaching era is a time for the disjointed society of the twentieth century to heal its fractures and a time for different forms of human knowledge to come together in global understanding

Books in Print, 1994 Testimony, Trust, and Authority Benjamin McMyler, 2011-09-12 Testimony Trust and Authority develops and defends an interpersonal theory of testimony according to which a speaker's testimony provides an audience with a distinctively second personal reason for belief

Revival: Aspects of Judaism (1928) Rabbi Salis Daiches, 2018-05-08 Addressed to Jews and non Jews alike though aware that these two reader groups were likely to approach the book with very different presuppositions Daiches sets out to define Judaism in relation to philosophy to explain Kant's philosophy through the superiority of halakhah defend a biblically based Jewish interpretation of history and champion Judaism as a religion of freedom guaranteed by halakhah Jewish law

The Revival of Civil Society Michael G. Schechter, 2016-07-27 What is meant by the concept of civil society Why do some equate it with liberal democracy while others think it simply a guise for a market economy Who benefits from globalization and who loses out Can civil society prosper in an era of globalization Can global civil society restrain some of the negative consequences of economic globalization Through a series of unique case studies and theoretical inquiries this volume provides a set of concrete answers to questions such as these

Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998 Beyond the Republican Revival Eric Ghosh, 2020-10-29 This is the first book length treatment of both the non positive and the positive liberty strands of the republican revival in political and constitutional theory The republican revival pursued especially over the last few decades has presented republicanism as an exciting alternative to the dominant tradition of liberalism The book provides a sharply different interpretation of liberty from that found in the republican revival and it argues that this different interpretation is not only historically more faithful to some prominent writers identified with the republican tradition but is also normatively more attractive The normative advantages are revealed through discussion of some central concerns relating to democracy and constitutionalism including the justification for democracy and the interpretation of constitutional rights The book also looks beyond republican liberty by drawing on the republican device of sortition selection by lot It proposes the use of large juries to decide bill of rights matters This novel proposal indicates how democracy might be reconciled with constitutional review based on a bill of rights Republicanism is not pitted against liberalism the favoured values and institutions fit with liberal commitments Western Political Thought Robert Eccleshall, Michael Kenny, 1995 This is a guide to the vast amount of literature on the history of political thought which has appeared in English since 1945 The editors provide an annotation of the content of many entries and where appropriate indicate their significance controversial nature and readability Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 Epistemic Value Adrian Haddock, Alan Millar (Ph. D.), Duncan Pritchard, 2009-09-03 Epistemic Value is a collection of new essays by leading epistemologists focusing on questions regarding the value of knowledge such as Is knowledge more valuable than true belief Is truth the central value informing epistemic appraisal or do other values enter the picture The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002 Bibliography of Islamic Philosophy, Volume 2 Hans Daiber, 2024-03-18 The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004113473 The Elgar Companion to Innovation and Knowledge Creation Harald Bathelt, Patrick Cohendet, Sebastian Henn, Laurent Simon, 2017-11-24 This unique Companion provides a comprehensive overview and critical evaluation of existing conceptualizations and new developments in innovation research It draws on multiple perspectives of innovation knowledge and creativity from economics geography history management political science and sociology The Companion brings together leading scholars to reflect upon innovation as a concept Part I innovation and institutions Part II innovation and creativity Part III innovation networking and communities Part IV innovation in permanent spatial settings Part V innovation in temporary virtual and open settings Part VI innovation entrepreneurship and market making Part VII and the governance and management of innovation Part VIII

Community-based Traditional Music in Scotland Josephine L. Miller, 2022-10-17 This book examines the community based learning and teaching of traditional music in contemporary Scotland with implications for transnational theoretical issues The book draws on a broad range of scholarship and a local case study of a large organisation A historical perspective provides an overview of new educational formats emerging from the mid twentieth century folk music revival in Scotland Practices through which participants encounter and perpetuate the idiom of traditional music include social music making learning by ear and participatory and presentational elements of musical performances Individuals are shown as combining these aspects with their own learning strategies to participate in the contemporary community of practice of traditional music The work also discusses how experiences of learning contribute to identity formation including the role and practice of tutors of traditional music The author proposes conceptualising the teaching and learning of traditional music in community based organisations as a pedagogy of participation Rethinking the High Renaissance Jill Burke,2017-07-05 The perception that the early sixteenth century saw a culmination of the Renaissance classical revival only to degrade into mannerism shortly after Raphael s death in 1520 has been extremely tenacious but many scholars agree that this tidy narrative is deeply problematic Exploring how we can reconceptualize the High Renaissance in a way that reflects how we research and teach today this volume complicates and deepens our understanding of artistic change Focusing on Rome the paradigmatic centre of the High Renaissance narrative each essay presents a case study of a particular aspect of the culture of the city in the early sixteenth century including new analyses of Raphael s stanze Michelangelo s Sistine Ceiling and the architectural designs of Bramante The contributors question notions of periodization reconsider the Renaissance relationship with classical antiquity and ultimately reconfigure our understanding of high Renaissance style The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier,2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum s spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum s diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum s path to spiritual freedom Bloch's Book Bulletin ,1929 Humanities ,1984 Exploring Education for Digital Librarians Sue Myburgh,Anna Maria Tammara,2013-04-17 Exploring Education for Digital Librarians provides a refreshing perspective on the discipline and profession of Library and Information Science LIS with a focus on preparing students for careers as librarians who can deal with present and future digital information environments A re examination of the knowledge base of the field combined with a proposed theoretical structure for LIS provide the basis for this work which also examines competencies for practice as well as some of the international changes in the nature of higher education The authors finally suggest a model that could be used internationally to educate librarians for their new roles and social responsibilities in a digitised networked world The twelve chapters of this book cover key issues in education for digital librarians including the necessity of regenerating the profession current contexts previous research on education for digital librarians understanding the dimensions of the discipline and profession of librarianship and the distinctions between them the social purpose of librarianship as a profession and the theoretical framework which supports the practice of the profession a brief analysis of curriculum design pedagogies and teaching methods and a glimpse of the proactive and important future role of librarianship in society Considers the ubiquitous misunderstanding that technology can replace libraries and librarians Provides a theoretical view of the field which can contribute awareness of dimensions of the dilemmas which the discipline profession currently faces Presents a broad international perspective which provides a basis for a new model for LIS education
