

A close-up photograph of a person's face, focusing on their eyes. The person is wearing a light blue surgical mask that covers the lower half of their face. The eyes are a striking greenish-yellow color and are looking directly at the camera with a calm, steady gaze. The skin around the eyes is fair and shows some fine lines. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blue, matching the color of the mask.

Relational Mindfulness Roberto Aristegui, Javier Garcia Campayo, Patricio Barriga, 2021-03-25 This book proposes a new approach to mindfulness based interventions presenting them not as individual but as relational practices In the last decades mindfulness has exerted a growing influence on many fields of research and activity but always as an individual practice The authors in this volume believe that the strong development of mindfulness today implies considering a dialogue between this individualistic approach and the perspective of relational mindfulness based on social constructionism The volume is organized in two parts The first part focuses on the theoretical foundations of relational mindfulness The second part presents possibilities of applications of relational mindfulness in clinical and organizational settings to promote mental health and personal development Relational Mindfulness Fundamentals and Applications will be of interest to a wide range of professionals interested in applying mindfulness based interventions in mental health care and productive organizations such as clinical and health psychologists public health professionals and human resources analysts and consultants among others It is true that the metaphor of mindfulness has been enormously fruitful in its invitation to innovate By removing meditative practices from their ancient roots practitioners were free to create practices especially relevant to context At the same time there was also a recognizable loss in the profoundly rich heritage that was left behind For many of us the greatest loss resulted from the absorption of such practices into Western individualism What had once been an orientation to practice emphasizing our fundamental inter being had become a gateway to silent separation It is in this context that the present volume bursts into significance With special appreciation to the editors of this book we are treated to a multi dimensional exploration into the relational dimensions of mindfulness practices Bringing ideas experience and wisdom from across professions and across continents the contributors open an exciting path to the future Excerpt from the Foreword by Kenneth J Gergen      Compassion's Edge Katherine Ibbett,2018 Compassion's Edge traces the relation between compassion and toleration after France's Wars of Religion This is not however a story about compassion overcoming difference but one of compassion reinforcing division It provides a robust corrective to today's hope that fellow feeling draws us inexorably and usefully together      Angelic Echoes Ralph Sarkonak,2000-08-01 In 1990 Herv Guibert gained wide recognition and notoriety with the publication of l'ami qui ne m'a pas sauvé la vie To the Friend Who Did Not Save My Life This novel one of the most famous AIDS fictions in French or any language recounts the battle of the first person narrator not only with AIDS but also with the medical establishment on both sides of the Atlantic Photography critic for Le Monde from 1977-1985 Guibert was also the co-author with Patrice Chéreau of a film script L'Homme Blessé which won a César in 1984 and author of more than twenty-five books eight of which have been translated into English In this vibrant and unusual study Ralph Sarkonak examines many intriguing aspects of Guibert's life and production the connection between his books and his photography his complex relationship with Roland Barthes and with his friend and mentor Michel Foucault relationships that were at once literary intellectual and personal in each case the ties between his writing and that of his contemporaries including Renaud Camus France's most prolific gay writer and his development of an AIDS aesthetic Using close textual analysis Sarkonak tracks the convolutions of Guibert's particular form of life writing in which fact and fiction are woven into a corpus that evolves from and revolves around his preoccupations obsessions and relationships including his problematic relationship with his own body both before and after his HIV positive diagnosis Guibert's work is a brilliant example of the emphasis on disclosure that marks recent queer writing in contrast to the denial and cryptic allusion that characterized much of the work by gay writers of previous generations Yet as Sarkonak concludes Guibert treats the notions of falsehood and truth with a postmodern hand as overlapping constructs rather than mutually exclusive ones or to use Foucault's expression as games with truth      Handbook of Self-Compassion Amy Finlay-Jones,Karen Bluth,Kristin Neff,2023-03-23 This handbook examines contemporary issues in self-compassion science and practice It describes advances in the conceptualization and measurement of self-compassion as well as current evidence from cross-sectional and experimental research The volume addresses the foundational issues of self-compassion including its relationship to self-esteem and mindfulness In addition it considers the developmental origins of self-compassion and its relevance across the life course including among adolescents and older adults The handbook explores the role of self-compassion in promoting well-being and resilience and addresses new frontiers in self compassion research such as the neural underpinnings and psychophysiology of compassionate self regulation Key areas of coverage include The meaning of self compassion for gender and sexuality minority groups The cultivation of self compassion among young people The use of interventions to promote self compassion The role of compassion based interventions in clinical contexts Important insights for using self compassion based interventions in practice The Handbook of Self Compassion is a must have resource for researchers professors and graduate students as well as clinicians therapists and other practitioners in psychology complementary and alternative medicine and social work as well as all interrelated research disciplines and clinical practices Handbook of Cognitive Behavioral advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric legal and cultural political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980 It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison Stephen King and W G Sebald artists Tracey Emin Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever expanding field of trauma research Literary and Visual Representations of HIV/AIDS Aimee Pozorski,Jennifer J. Lavoie,Christine J.

Cynn,2019-11-06 Literary and Visual Representations of HIV AIDS Forty Years Later depicts how film and literature about the HIV AIDS crisis expand upon the issues generated by the epidemic This collection fills an important gap in the scholarship on HIV AIDS by bringing together essays by both established and junior scholars on visual and literary representations of HIV AIDS Almost forty years after the first reported cases of what would later be defined as AIDS this book looks back across the decades at works of literature and film to discuss how the representation of HIV AIDS has shifted in media This book argues that literature constitutes a very powerful response to AIDS that ripples into film and politics driving the changes in past and contemporary representations of HIV AIDS The book also expands discussion of the issues generated and amplified by the epidemic to consider how HIV AIDS has been portrayed in the United States Western and Southern Africa Western Europe and East Asia

The Journey's End Michael D Connelly, 2023-04-04 In the tradition of Atul Gawande's Being Mortal this compassionate work helps individuals develop a more accepting view of dying while teaching them what to expect and how to navigate the healthcare system at the end of life In elderhood the health care system has a narrow view of how to provide care It focuses on extending a patient's life at all costs with an over reliance on machines and procedures instead of caring holistically for the person Accordingly many of us will likely spend our final weeks in long term care facilities or an ICU Dying at home peacefully and surrounded by family is almost impossible in our world and our fear of death is a major contributor to this impossibility Fittingly the central idea of this book is that in old age or when facing a terminal diagnosis it is more important to understand your life rather than to extend it While this may seem simple its implications are profound A natural death means accepting that at some point we are old enough or sick enough to die In our cynical and overly clinical age it is difficult to reflect on the meaning of one's life but that kind of honest introspection is exactly what we need Accordingly The Journey's End seeks to help people manage their healthcare their expectations and their decisions in the final phase of life
