The Concept Of God:

The Concept of God Ronald H. Nash, 1983 This book brings together for the general reader the intense and wide ranging discussions now taking place among philosophers on the attributes of God Because of its clear explanations numerous examples brevity and breadth The Concept of God can be an important supplemental text to theology classes and philosophy or religion classes Lightning Print On Demand Title A History of the Concept of God Daniel A. Dombrowski, 2016-02-01

Daniel A Dombrowski explores the history of the concept of God from the perspective of neoclassical or process theism His neoclassical approach assuages the current crisis in philosophical theism caught between a defense of classical theism and assertions of religious skepticism Instead the work offers Charles Hartshorne's notion of a God who always evolves quite unlike the allegedly perfect figure of more traditional and increasingly unsatisfactory accounts Dombrowski surveys the classical theists and their roots in ancient Greek philosophy before turning to contributions from the sixteenth through twentieth centuries ultimately discussing twenty three thinkers The key figures in this history are Plato who ironically provided the philosophical basis both for classical and neoclassical concepts and three great figures in process theism Henri Bergson Alfred North Whitehead and Hartshorne The concept of God has a rich past this book argues that it can have a rich future as well The Concept of God, the Origin of the World, and the Image of the Human in the World Religions

P. Koslowski, 2001-11-30 The five volume series was designed for the World Exposition Expo 2000 in Hanover Germany to contribute to the dialogue of the world religions After an introduction to the conflict of religion and the mission of a philosophy of the world religions scholars of philosophy and religion from the east and west ring the three themes through the perspectives of Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam The 12 talks were presented to the first discourse in Emden Germany in September 1999 There is no subject index Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 1995 Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i e God's ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians Jurgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account

Koslowski, 2012-12-06 All religions make statements about God or the Absolute and about the beginning about the beginning of the world and the beginning and nature of the human person Propositions about God the human person and the world statements about God s eternity or process of becoming about the status and nature of the human person as the image of God and about the beginning of the world are woven into religious speculations about the beginning The theology anthropology and cosmology of the world religions determine the image of the human person and the image of the world in the world cultures shaped by the different religions They stand in a tense relationship with the anthropologies and cosmologies of modern science which in turn challenge the religions to deepen their image of the human person With this volume leading thinkers of Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam provide the reader with a first hand source for understanding the five world religions and their teaching about God the human person and the origin of the world The Color of God Major J. Dombrowski, 1996-10-10

Initiates and continues a dialogue regarding the concept of God in the neoclassical philosophy of Charles Hartshorne and that found in analytic philosophers who adhere to classical theism The Concept of God Thomas V. Morris,1987 This anthology contains a representative sample of some of the best contemporary philosophical work concerning the traditional Judeo Christian concept of God Evil and the Concept of God Edward H. Madden,Peter H. Hare,1968 The Evolution of the Idea of God Grant Allen,2007-04-01 Originally published in 1897 The Evolution of the Idea of God is a study of humans belief in God from primitive tribal religions to what Allen considered the more advanced Christian view The main question explored here is How did we arrive at our knowledge of God Rather than trying to prove or disprove any claims about the divine Allen s method simply traces the psychological processes that led humans to religious belief and further from a belief in polytheism to monotheism Students of religion mythology and human psychology will find this an intriguing work Canadian writer GRANT ALLEN 1848 1899 attended university in the United Kingdom and taught at Queen s College in Jamaica His many published books include mainly scientific books and popular novels and in 1895 he published one of the first Canadian science fiction books The British Barbarians The Concept of the Knowledge of God Brian Haymes,1988 The Concept of 'God' Vinoth,2018-02-02 God the supernatural being the perfect the omnipotent and the omniscient originator and ruler of the universe is the object of worship in almost all religions across the world Usually people understand God through the religions they re born in This way they get to learn how and why their Gods created reality and put them in it But is this the only possible way to understand the entity What if one takes an alternate route to understand God What if one first understands the reality God created the reality that everything and everyone s a part of and then identifies the entity itself Reality includes everything around and inside it and inevitably includes us Understanding the reality requires a metaphysical analysis of life and the universe and metaphysics reaches an incredibly new level if the knowledge of the Western sciences is merged with the everlasting ideas of the Eastern spiritual philosophies With multiple perspectives making the reader constantly inquisitive The Concept of God merges the knowledge of science and spirituality to understand the nature of life and reality and then finds out who the all powerful God is Charles Hartshorne's Concept of God S. Sia,2013-03-14 Charles Hartshorne s considerable writings have been influential in contemporary religious and philosophical thought Not only is he regarded as the leading living representative of process thought as well as a much respected interpreter of Whitehead but he has also established himself as an original and creative thinker in his own right The literature on his philosophy has been rapidly increasing His thought and influence have also been the subject of a number of conferences and gatherings of scholars One of Hartshorne s most notable contributions to contemporary philosophy and theology is his concept of God In his writings he has set out to formulate the idea of deity so as to preserve perhaps increase its religious value while yet avoiding the contradictions which seem inseparable from the idea as customarily defined The result of his efforts has been the development of the concept of a dipolar God insofar as contrasting metaphysical predicates e g relative absolute contingent necessary finite infinite and so on are affirmed as applicable to God although always in an eminent way Inasmuch as he has elaborated this concept in close dialogue with classical theism he also refers to it as neo classical Because of the emphasis he places on the reality of change and becoming in his metaphysics which regards God as the chief exemplification of metaphysical principles the term 6 process has likewise been used to describe his notion of God

Constructing Moral Concepts of God in a Global Age Myriam Renaud, 2022-07-29 Constructing Moral Concepts of God in a Global Age focuses on what people say and think about God rather than on arguments about God's existence It advances a theological method or step by step approach to explore and reframe personal convictions about God and the worldviews shaped by those convictions Since a moral God is more likely to foster a moral life this method integrates an ethical check to ensure that understandings of God and their associated worldviews are validly moral The proposed method builds on the work of twentieth century theologian Gordon Kaufman during the Kantian phase of his work It anticipates a person like God who hears prayers loves without end and comforts in times of hardship To accommodate today's pluralistic and globalized world the ethical check integrated in the method is a widely collaborative and vetted global ethic the Parliament of the World's Religions Declaration Towards a Global Ethic This volume of constructive philosophical theology is written for seminary students educators clergy study groups and anyone interested in delving more deeply and systematically into understandings of God whether their own or those of others

The Idea of God in Early Religions F. B.

Jevons, 2019-12-20 In The Idea of God in Early Religions F B Jevons undertakes a systematic exploration of the evolution of divinity across various ancient cultures The book is characterized by its analytical rigor featuring a comparative method that draws upon textual and archaeological evidence to illustrate the shifting perceptions of godly figures throughout human history Speaking to an era fascinated by the intersection of mythology and rational thought Jevons situates his inquiries within the broader context of early anthropological studies offering insights into how early religions shaped societal norms and ethical frameworks F B Jevons an influential figure in the study of comparative religion and mythology was imbued with a deep interest in the complexities of spiritual beliefs stemming from his academic background in philosophy and anthropology His scholarly pursuits led him to examine how primitive understandings of the divine influenced later religious developments a trajectory informed by the changing intellectual landscapes of the late 19th century Jevons's broad knowledge base renders his examinations both comprehensive and perceptive illuminating the nuances of belief systems in antiquity This book is an essential read for anyone interested in the foundations of religious thought and the historical frameworks that have shaped human spirituality Jevons's meticulous research serves not only scholars in the fields of theology and anthropology but also general readers eager to understand the origins and transformations of the concept of God across diverse cultures

The Concept of Self in Hinduism,

Buddhism, and Christianity and Its Implication for Interfaith Relations Kiseong Shin, 2017-05-05 This is the first comparative study of the self and no self in Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity In spite of doctrinal differences within these three belief systems they agree that human beings are in a predicament from which they need to be liberated Indian religions including Hinduism and Buddhism share the belief that human nature is inherently perfectible while the epistemological and psychological limitation of the human being is integral to Christian belief Regarding the immortality of the human being Hinduism and Christianity traditionally and generally agree that human beings as atman or soul possess intrinsic immortality On the contrary Buddhism teaches the doctrine of no self anatta Further in their quest to analyze the human predicament and attempt a way out of it they employ different concepts such as sin and salvation in Christianity attachment tanka and enlightenment nirvana in Buddhism and ignorance avidya and liberation moksa in Hinduism This volume seeks to show that that behind these concepts are deep concerns related to human existence and its relationship with the whole creation These common concerns can be a basis for a greater understanding and dialogue between Christians Hindus and Buddhists
