Teaford, 1993-04-22 During the 1880s and 90s the rise of manufacturing the first soaring skyscrapers new symphony orchestras and art museums and winning baseball teams all heralded the midwestern city s coming of age In this book Jon C Teaford chronicles the development of these cities of the industrial Midwest as they challenged the urban supremacy of the East The antebellum growth of Cincinnati to Queen City status was followed by its eclipse as St Louis and then Chicago developed into industrial and cultural centers During the second quarter of the twentieth century emerging Sunbelt cities began to rob the heartland of its distinction as a boom area. In the last half of the century however midwestern cities have suffered some of their most trying times. With the 1970s and 80s came signs of age and obsolescence the heartland had become the rust belt. Teaford examines the complex heartland consciousness of the industrial Midwest through boom and bust.
