work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without American Women Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine, Juliana Spahr, 2013-10-01 Poetry in America is flourishing in this new millennium and asking serious questions of itself Is writing marked by gender and if so how What does it mean to be experimental How can lyric forms be authentic This volume builds on the energetic tensions inherent in these questions focusing on ten major American women poets whose collective work shows an incredible range of poetic practice Each section of the book is devoted to a single poet and contains new poems a brief statement of poetics by the poet herself in which she explores the forces personal aesthetic political informing her creative work a critical essay on the poet s work a biographical statement and a bibliography listing works by and about the poet Underscoring the dynamic give and take between poets and the culture at large this anthology is indispensable for anyone interested in poetry gender and the creative process CONTRIBUTORS Rae Armantrout Mei mei Berssenbrugge Lucie Brock Broido Jorie Graham Barbara Guest Lyn Hejinian Brenda Hillman Susan Howe Ann Lauterbach Harryette Mullen The Collected Poems of Barbara Guest Barbara Guest, 2013-09-01 Winner of the SFSU Poetry Center Book Award 2010 One of the most notable members of the New York School and its best known woman Barbara Guest began writing poetry in the 1950s in company that included John Ashbery Kenneth Koch Frank O Hara and James Schuyler And from the beginning her practice placed her at the vanguard of American writing Guest s poetry saturated in the visual arts extended the formal experiments of modernism and played the abstract qualities of language against its sensuousness and materiality Now for the first time all of her published poems have been brought together in one volume offering readers and scholars unprecedented access to Guest s remarkable visionary work This Collected Poems moves from her early New York School years through her more abstract later work including some final poems never before published Switching effortlessly from the real to the dreamlike the observed to the imagined this is poetry both gentle and piercing seemingly simple but truly and beautifully dislocating Lyric In Its Times John Wilkinson, 2019-06-27 In this important new intervention leading poet and critic John Wilkinson explores the material life of the lyric poem How does the lyric considered as an object as an event grapple with permanence and impermanence the rhythms of change and the passing of time Drawing on new insights from contemporary philosophy and object oriented ontology psychoanalysis and the visual arts The Lyric in Its Times includes innovative and insightful new readings of work by a wide range of lyric poets from Shakespeare Blake and Shelley to Charles Baudelaire Frank O Hara and J H Prynne Essays on the Peripheries Peter Valente, 2021-04-22 Essays on the Peripheries contains essays written by translator and scholar Peter Valente over a twenty year period stretching from the 1990s to 2019 They are a record of literary exploration and discovery concerned with the recovery of lost works with those writers whose works were out of print or hard to find and whose names were somehow not fashionable in the current discourse but who are important nevertheless Edouard Roditi Barbara Barg and Tom Savage for example should be better known but their books are largely ignored This collection of essays highlights those works on the periphery such as Turkish poets Seyhan Er z elik and K k skender while it also includes several essays on better known queer authors like Pierre Guyotat and Pier Paolo Pasolini focusing on often overlooked qualities in their work that bear looking at closely These essays on works of literature are complemented by a number of texts on jazz again highlighting important and interesting figures in the world of jazz and free improvisation that may have fallen through the cracks such as the pianist Richard Twardzick and the Ganelin trio which recorded their great experimental work Ancora da Capo in 1980 behind the Iron Curtain Attention is also to given to more popular figures such as Stan Getz The volume is completed with a series of essays reappraising Roman poets in the twenty first century offering fresh new translations and readings of authors such as Catullus and Callimachus A collection of essays like an anthology is by its nature incomplete Essays on the Peripheries is a kind of sketch rather than a finished portrait of the author s changing impressions on various subjects over the years
