Anthropology in India Yogesh Atal, 2009 The Indian Council of Social Science Research the premier organization for social science research in India conducts periodic surveys in the major disciplines of the social sciences to assess disciplinary developments as well as to identify gaps in research in these disciplines South Asia and its Others Atreyee Phukan, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2020-10-27 The essays in South Asia and Its Others Reading the Exotic reveal fresh perspectives on the notion of exoticism in South Asia and also challenge and extend existing scholarship in the broader discourse of what constitutes South Asia Significantly the anthology considers how the phenomenon of exoticization may be interpreted as a strategic methodology utilized by writers of South Asian descent to examine critically both the post colonialist ramifications of casteism religious intolerance and gender violence across differing cultural contexts within the region and how current perceptions of native and diasporic South Asian subjects problematize ideologies of authenticity across Western Eastern divides The papers in this collection show how authors of South Asian ethnicity construct their own version of an exotic South Asia globally and the colonialist discourse of exocitism is employed as a discursive tool that uncovers the ambiguity that continues to mark the marginality of identities even today The relic state Pamila Gupta, 2016-05-16 This book is a study of the complex nature of colonial and missionary power in Portuguese India Written as a historical ethnography it explores the evolving shape of a series of Catholic festivals that took place throughout the duration of Portuguese colonial rule in Goa 1510 1961 and for which the centrepiece was the incorrupt corpse of S o Francisco Xavier 1506 52 a Spanish Basque Jesuit missionary turned saint Using distinct genres of source materials produced over the long duree of Portuguese colonialism the book documents the historical and visual transformation of Xavier s corporeal ritualisation in death through six events staged at critical junctures between 1554 and 1961 Xavier s very mutability as a religious political and cultural symbol in Portuguese India will also suggest his continuing role as a symbol of Goa s shared past for both Catholics and Hindus and in shaping Goa s culturally distinct representation within the larger Indian nation state Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World Pamila Gupta, 2018-10-18 Pamila Gupta takes a unique approach to examining decolonization processes across Lusophone India and Southern Africa focusing on Goa Mozambique Angola and South Africa weaving together case studies using five interconnected themes Gupta considers decolonization through the twined lenses of history and ethnography accessed through written oral visual and eyewitness accounts of how people experienced the transfer of state power She looks at the materiality of decolonization as a movement of peoples across vast oceanic spaces demonstrating how it was a process of dispossession for both the Portuguese formerly in power and ordinary colonial citizens and subjects She then discusses the production of race and class anxieties during decolonization which took on a variety of forms but were often articulated through material objects The book aims to move beyond linear histories of colonial independence by connecting its various regions using the theme of decolonization offering a productive and new approach to writing post national histories and ethnographies Finally Gupta demonstrates the value of using different source materials to access narratives of decolonization analyzing the work of Mozambican photographer Ricardo Rangel and including lyrical prose and ethnographical observations Portuguese Decolonization in the Indian Ocean World provides a nuanced understanding of Lusophone decolonization revealing the perspectives of people who experienced it This book will be highly valuable for historians of the Indian Ocean world and decolonization but also those interested in ethnography diaspora studies and material culture

Religion and Empire in Portuguese India Ângela Barreto Xavier, 2022-03-01 How did the colonization of Goa in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries take place How was it related to projects for the conversion of Goan colonial subjects to Catholicism In Religion and Empire in Portuguese India Ângela Barreto Xavier examines these questions through a reading of the relevant secular and missionary archives and texts She shows how the twin drives of conversion and colonization in Portuguese India resulted in a variety of outcomes ranging from negotiation to passive resistance to moments of extreme violence Focusing on the rural hinterlands rather than the city of Goa itself Barreto Xavier shows how Goan actors were able to seize hold of complex cultural resources in order to further their own projects and narrate their own myths and histories In the process she argues Portuguese Goa emerged as a space with a specific identity that was a result of these contestations and interactions The book de essentializes the categories of colonizer and colonized making visible instead their inner group diversity of interests their different modes of identification and the specificity of local dynamics in their interactions and exchanges in other words the several threads that wove the fabric of colonial life
