Encounters Stephanie Cronin,2013 Over the past two hundred years encounters between Iran and Russia have been both rich and complex This book explores the myriad dimensions of the Iranian Russian encounter during a dramatic period which saw both Iran and Russia subject to revolutionary upheavals and transformed from multinational dynastic empires typical of the nineteenth century to modernizing authoritarian states typical of the twentieth The collection provides a fresh perspective on traditional preoccupations of international relations wars and diplomacy the hostility of opposing nationalisms the Russian imperial menace in the nineteenth century and the Soviet threat in the twentieth Going beyond the traditional this book examines subaltern as well as elite relations and combines a cultural social and intellectual dimension with the political and diplomatic In doing so the book seeks to construct a new discourse which contests the notion of an implacable enmity between Iran and Russia Bringing together leading scholars in the field this book demonstrates extensive use of family archives Iranian Russian and Caucasian travelogues and memoirs and newly available archives in both Iran and the countries of the former Soviet Union Providing essential background to current international tensions this book will be of particular use to students and scholars with an interest in the Middle East and Russia Marxism and Left-Wing Politics in

Edward Wang, Georg G. Iggers, 2015-07-16 Marxist Historiographies is the first book to examine the ebb and flow of Marxist historiography from a global and cross cultural perspective Since the eighteenth century few schools of historical thought have exerted a more lasting impact than Marxism and this impact extends far beyond the Western world within which it is most commonly analysed Edited by two highly respected authors in the field this book deals with the effect of Marxism on historical writings not only in parts of Europe where it originated but also in countries and regions in Africa Asia North and South America and the Middle East Rather than presenting the chapters geographically it is structured with respect to how Marxist influence was shown in the works of historians in a particular area This title takes a dual approach to the subject some chapters are national in scope addressing the Marxist impact on historical practices within a country whereas others deal with the varied expressions of Marxist historiography throughout a wider region Taking a truly global perspective on this topic Marxist Historiographies demonstrates clearly the breadth and depth of Marxism's influence in historical writing throughout the world and is essential reading for all students of historiography
