The Complete Novels And Selected Tales Of Nathaniel Hawthorne G37:

The Canterbury Tales Geoffrey Chaucer, 1392 Chaucer's work begins at the Tabard Inn in Southwark England where a group of pilgrims have assembled on their way to Canterbury Harry Bailly the innkeeper suggests a contest whoever tells the best tale will win a supper when they reach Canterbury

Anthology of American Negro Literature Victor Francis Calverton, 1929

The Garden Party K. Mansfield, 1917

The Guermantes Way Marcel Proust, The twittering of the birds at daybreak sounded insipid to Fran oise Every word uttered by the maids upstairs made her jump disturbed by all their running about she kept asking herself what they could be doing In other words we had moved Certainly the servants had made no less noise in the attics of our old home but she knew them she had made of their comings and goings familiar events Now she faced even silence with a strained attention And as our new neighbourhood appeared to be as quiet as the boulevard on to which we had hitherto looked had been noisy the song distinct at a distance when it was still quite faint like an orchestral motif of a passer by brought tears to the eyes of a Fran oise in exile And so if I had been tempted to laugh at her in her misery at having to leave a house in which she was so well respected on all sides and had packed her trunks with tears according to the Use of Combray declaring superior to all possible houses that which had been ours on the other hand I who found it as hard to assimilate new as I found it easy to abandon old conditions I felt myself drawn towards our old servant when I saw that this installation of herself in a building where she had not received from the hall porter who did not yet know us the marks of respect necessary to her moral wellbeing had brought her positively to the verge of dissolution She alone could understand what I was feeling certainly her young footman was not the person to do so for him who was as unlike the Combray type as it was possible to conceive packing up moving living in another district were all like taking a holiday in which the novelty of one's surroundings gave one the same sense of refreshment as if one had actually travelled he thought he was in the country and a cold in the head afforded him as though he had been sitting in a draughty railway carriage the delicious sensation of having seen the world at each fresh sneeze he rejoiced that he had found so smart a place having always longed to be with people who travelled a lot And so without giving him a thought I went straight to Fran oise who in return for my having laughed at her tears over a removal which had left me cold now shewed an icy indifference to my sorrow but because she shared it The sensibility claimed by neurotic people is matched by their egotism they cannot abide the flaunting by others of the sufferings to which they pay an ever increasing attention in themselves Fran oise who would not allow the least of her own ailments to pass unnoticed if I were in pain would turn her head from me so that I should not have the satisfaction of seeing my sufferings pitied or so much as observed It was the same as soon as I tried to speak to her about our new house Moreover having been obliged a day or two later to return to the house we had just left to retrieve some clothes which had been overlooked in our removal while I as a result of it had still a temperature and like a boa constrictor that has just swallowed an ox felt myself painfully distended by the sight of a long trunk which my eyes had still to digest

Fran oise with true feminine inconstancy came back saying that she had really thought she would stifle on our old boulevard it was so stuffy that she had found it quite a day s journey to get there that never had she seen such stairs that she would not go back to live there for a king s ransom not if you were to offer her millions a pure hypothesis and that everything everything that is to say to do with the kitchen and usual offices was much better fitted up in the new house Which it is high time now that the reader should be told and told also that we had moved into it because my grandmother not having been at all well though we took care to keep this reason from her was in need of better air was a flat forming part of the H tel de Guermantes

Sons and Lovers David Herbert Lawrence,1922 Lawrence s first major novel was also the first in the English language to explore ordinary working class life from the inside No writer before or since has written so well about the intimacies enforced by a tightly knit mining community and by a family where feelings are never hidden forlong Paul Morel is caught between his need for family and community and his efforts to define himself sexually and emotionally Lawrence s powerful description of Paul s relationships makes this a novel as much for the beginning of the twenty first century as it was for the beginning of thetwentieth The Captive Marcel Proust,1929 Albertine is living with the narrator under his own roof He has tired of her yet is held to her by the torturing bonds of suspicion and jealousy of her relations with other women The long novel is an analysis of the narrator s soul upon the rack of jealousy At the end come the anticipated break between the lovers Book Review Digest 1929 Dead Souls Николай Васильевич Гоголь,1923 A stranger arrives in a Russian backwater community with a bizarre proposition for the local landowners cash for their dead souls the serfs who have died in their service and for whom they must continue to pay taxes until the next census The landowner receives a payment and a relief of his tax burden and the stranger receives what Gogol s comic masterpiece offers a vast and satirical painting of the Russian panorama as it traces the path and encounters of its mysterious protagonist in pursuit of his dubious scheme Dead Souls regarded as both a realistic portrait of nineteenth century Russia and a work of great symbolism continues to inspire twenty first century authors and readers Point Counter Point Aldous Huxley,1928 A novel of the hectic lifestyle of the 1920 s in which the characters experiment with libertine sex political anarchism and the death of God theory The Philosophy of Plato Plato,1928 The Picture of Dorian Gray Oscar Wilde,1909 Eminent

Victorians Lytton Strachey,1918 The Sweet Cheat Gone Marcel Proust,1957 The Guermantes Way Marcel Proust,1925 The third volume of Marcel Proust s In Search of Lost Time which portrays fashionable Parisian life in the late nineteenth century where the narrator enters the brilliant shallow world of the literary and aristocratic salons Both a salute to and devastating satire of a time a place and a culture The Old Wives' Tale Arnold Bennett,1911 Aeschylus

Aeschylus,1960 The Expedition of Humphry Clinker Tobias George Smollett,1929 The Odyssey Homer,1960

Buddenbrooks Thomas Mann,1924 The Best Stories of Guy de Maupassant Guy de Maupassant,1944

Washington Square Henry James,1950 The shy and sweet daughter of a well to do physician Catherine Sloper seems destined for lifelong spinsterhood until the sudden appearance of a dashing suitor who proposes marriage Her adored father suspects the would be fiance of fortune hunting and threatens her with disinheritance forcing Catherine to choose between lover and father Setting his novel in New York City of the 1840s James masterfully explores the moral consequences of a tender heart s ruthless manipulation
