The Complete Story Of The Course

Donald A. Eisner

The Complete Story Of The Course:

The Complete Story of the Course D. Patrick Miller, 1998 Special method in history, a complete outline of a course of study for the grades below the high school Charles Alexander McMurry, 1903 The Encyclopedic Sourcebook of New Age Religions James R. Lewis, 2004-08-30

In the late 1980s the New Age movement became the focus of both media attention and widespread ridicule as some of the more outlandish aspects of the movement such as channeling and the use of crystals for healing briefly piqued the public's curiosity. While the movement was at its height, scholars of religion generally sneered at what was perceived to be a daffy shallow craze and ignored it as a subject of serious study. Professor James R. Lewis was among the first to examine this growing religious phenomenon scientifically. In previous books he has investigated the New Age as the most visible manifestation of a significant spiritual subculture the roots of which reach back to Theosophy, Spiritualism and New Thought. The present collection pursues this theme bringing together some of the best recent scholarship on new religions. Since the height of its popular influence the New Age has declined in strength but has given rise to a plethora of new denominations all shaped by New Age ideas and spirituality. Reflecting the emergence of this new denominational structure the core chapters of this book focus on specific groups. Other chapters examine the movement's historical roots. A unique feature of Dr. Lewis's work is his inclusion of extensive selections from New Age literature thus allowing readers to experience firsthand the unusual perspectives of the various groups. This is a fascinating examination of a significant and persistent religious and social phenomenon.

One is the author's debut novel a suburban American Indian coming of age story set in Tours, France in 1985 whose theme is self-discovery. Despite being influenced by a number of 20th century classics in this genre of literature such as F. Scott Fitzgerald's This Side of Paradise, Evelyn Waugh's Brideshead Revisited, John Knowles' Paragon and Bret Easton Ellis' Less Than Zero, Cecil Donald Leighton Jr.'s coming of age novel is strikingly different in that it memorializes what it was like to attend Stanford University and study abroad in France as an assimilated mixed blood Lakota Catholic prep in the mid 1980s. In True the main character of Tom Spotted Tail Augustine Stearns, a child of de jure desegregation and the federal American Indian policy of relocation from reservations to seven U.S. cities, is forced to face and address through the prism of his ethnic identity, gentleman's education and Catholic faith, the pressing issues of his day concerning race, class, religion, nationality, sexuality and AIDS especially as they relate to his everyday experience, moral formation and personal relationships. In the course of his Stanford in Tours studies, weekend clubbing, day trips to Paris, collegiate friendships, sexual temptations and falling in love, not to mention his Grand Tour of Italy and other travels, Tom journeys inward and in the process comes face to face with what it means to be true In the course of this classic 1980 s tale of money sex and fast living set in Los Angeles and cities across Europe the main character Tom Spotted Tail Augustine Stearns a Stanford undergraduate home for Christmas Break from his studies in France finds himself tempted and seduced by all that glitters but is not gold Despite his sincere faith repentance frequenting of the sacraments and marriage to a brilliant blonde co ed from Napa Valley Tom repeatedly falls from grace Under the seductive power of the world the flesh and the devil Tom is led deeper and deeper into a Dantean woods of melancholic isolation and sin spiritual correction and suffering but also ultimately unmerited love and redemption In the completion of his interior journey and life as both sinner and saint Tom discovers what it means to be one in weakness and in strength in flesh and in spirit in time and in eternity
