The Contemporary And His Soul:

Archbishop Fulton Sheen, the Contemporary Humanist Emmanuel K. Ngwainmbi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen's contribution to humanity and society. It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective, explores Fulton Sheen's perception of the contemporary individual, and demonstrates that global economic, religious, and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane. It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living. The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness; people are still frustrated, disillusioned, cynical, bored, and suicidal. This book enters the landscape of Sheen's controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen's Christian anthropology, wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society.

The Modern Russian Theater: A Literary and Cultural History Nicholas Rzhevsky, 2016-09-16 This comprehensive and original survey of Russian theater in the twentieth century and into the twenty-first encompasses the major productions of directors such as Meyerhold, Stanislavsky, Tovstonogov, Dodin, and Liubimov that drew from Russian and world literature. It is based on a close analysis of adaptations of literary works by Pushkin, Dostoevsky, Gogol, Blok, Bulgakov, Sholokhov, Rasputin, Abramov, and many others. The Modern Russian Stage is the result of more than two decades of research as well as the author's professional experience working with the Russian director Yuri Liubimov in Moscow and London. The book traces the transformation of literary works into the brilliant stagecraft that characterizes Russian theater. It uses the perspective of theater performances to engage all the important movements of modern Russian culture, including modernism, socialist realism, postmodernism, and the creative renaissance of the first decades since the Soviet regime's collapse.

The Growth of a Soul August Strindberg, 1914 The Nature of the Soul Terrance W. Klein, 2016-03-03 This book offers a contemporary Christian explication of the word soul that uses Wittgenstein and his interpreters to suggest that human intelligence and desire cannot be mapped into the world that is described by science and metaphysics. It examines the Aristotelian notion of the soul as one who acts in the world and suggests that we construct ourselves, our narratives, by our actions in history. Drawing upon the resurrection accounts of the gospels where Jesus is presented as having been translated into the liturgy, it speculates that the core of the human person, his or her intelligence, can be translated into other material mediums while maintaining personal identity. Reading Aquinas according to the insights of contemporary figures in Anglo-American philosophy of language, Klein argues that ultimately to be a soul is to be a narrative destined for Christic incorporation into the Book of Life spoken of in Revelation.

Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England Clare Gittings, 2023-10-13 First published in 1984, Death, Burial and the Individual in Early Modern England traces how and why the modern reaction to death has come about by examining English attitudes to death since the Middle Ages. In earlier centuries death was very much in the midst of life since it was not as now associated mainly with old age War plague and infant mortality gave it a very different aspect to its present one The author shows in detail how modern concern with the individual has gradually alienated death from our society the greater the emphasis on personal uniqueness the more intense the anguish when an individual dies Changes in attitudes to death are traced through alterations in funeral rituals covering all sections of society from paupers to princes This gracefully written book is a unique scholarly and thorough treatment of the subject providing both a sensitive insight into the feelings of people in early modern England and an explanation of the modern anxiety about death The range and assurance of this book will commend it to historians and the interested general reader alike

Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society Jim Kline, 2023-04-14 Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society explores modern examples of beliefs that defy logic but nevertheless are enthusiastically embraced by legions of contemporary people living in technologically advanced societies The appeal of nonrational logic is based upon C G Jung's ideas regarding archetypes considered to be unconscious thought and behavioural patterns universal to all of humanity and expressed in dreams art religion and reports of supernatural and paranormal experiences such as the belief in UFOs conspiracy theories associated with child sacrifice and devil worship lizard people who secretly rule the world and internet demons whom many insist are real C G Jung insisted that archetypal reality must be acknowledged for what it is expressions of universal truths about the human condition Nonrational Logic includes a multitude of examples from world folklore and reports of traditional customs from around the world collected in the multivolume anthropological classic The Golden Bough by James Frazer comparing these traditional reports with contemporary ones to underscore the human psyche's obsessive desire to embrace the fantastic the extraordinary and the unbelievable Nonrational Logic in Contemporary Society is important reading for analytical psychologists Jungian psychotherapists and other professionals as well as the general public seeking to understand how prevalent nonrational thinking is in modern societies and how it reflects traditional expressions

Drama in the Modern World: Plays & Essays, 1996 Your Soul's Compass Joan Borysenko, 2009-11 Why are we here Are we fulfilling life's purpose What is evolutionary intelligence trying to express through us In this time of global change and uncertainty of spiritual indirection people are asking these age old questions with renewed curiosity There is a thirst for meaning and purpose a dawning realization that happiness isn't a commodity that can be bought with a gold card Fulfillment and joy arise naturally from the capacity to be present to life as it's unfolding and to listen for and discern the best possibilities in any situation which inform enlightened compassionate action Joan and Gordon's hope is that Your Soul's Compass will help you move beyond limited ways of knowing and open up the vast evolutionary intelligence needed to make the leap toward fuller self realization in your own life and in the world The Contemporary Review, 1917 The Soul of Theological Anthropology Joshua R. Farris, 2016-11-25 Recent research in the philosophy of religion anthropology and philosophy of mind has prompted the need for a more integrated comprehensive and systematic theology of human nature

This project constructively develops a theological accounting of human persons by drawing from a Cartesian as a term of art model of anthropology which is motivated by a long tradition As was common among patristics medievals and Reformed Scholastics Farris draws from philosophical resources to articulate Christian doctrine as he approaches theological anthropology Exploring a substance dualism model the author highlights relevant theological texts and passages of Scripture arguing that this model accounts for doctrinal essentials concerning theological anthropology While Farris is not explicitly interested in thorough critique of materialist ontology he notes some of the significant problems associated with it Rather the present project is an attempt to revitalize the resources found in Cartesianism by responding to some common worries associated with it

The Origins of Contemporary France: The French revolution Hippolyte Taine, 1885 The Modern Stephen King Canon Patrick McAleer, Philip L. Simpson, 2018-11-29 The Modern Stephen King Canon Beyond Horror is a collection of essays focused on the more recent writings of Stephen King including Revival 11 22 63 and a selection of short stories by the Master of the Macabre The authors write about King works that have received little critical attention and aim to open up doorways of analysis and insight that will help readers gain a stronger appreciation for the depth and detail within King s fiction Indeed while King is often relegated to the role of a genre writer horror the essays in this collection consider the merits of King s writing beyond the basics of horror for which he is primarily known Recommended for scholars of literature horror and popular culture

A Christian in the Contemporary World ArchBp Averky (Taushev), Astrology and Popular Religion in the Modern West Nicholas Campion, 2016-04-15 This book explores an area of contemporary religion spirituality and popular culture which has not so far been investigated in depth the phenomenon of astrology in the modern west Locating modern astrology historically and sociologically in its religious New Age and millenarian contexts Nicholas Campion considers astrology s relation to modernity and draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with leading modern astrologers to present an invaluable contribution to our understanding of the origins and nature of New Age ideology This book challenges the notion that astrology is either marginal or a feature of postmodernism Concluding that astrology is more popular than the usual figures suggest Campion argues that modern astrology is largely shaped by New Age thought influenced by the European Millenarian tradition that it can be seen as an heir to classical Gnosticism and is part of the vernacular religion of the modern west

Do We Have a Soul? Eric T. Olson, Aaron Segal, 2023-08-04 Are we made entirely of matter like sticks and stones Or do we have a soul a nonphysical entity where our mental lives take place The authors Eric T Olson and Aaron Segal begin this accessible and wide ranging debate by looking at the often overlooked question of whether we appear in ordinary experience to be material things Olson then argues that the dependence of our mental lives on the condition of our brains the fact that general anesthesia causes complete unconsciousness for instance is best explained by saying that our mental lives are physical activities in our brains rather than nonphysical activities in the soul Segal objects that this view is incompatible with two obvious and important facts about ourselves that there is only one of you rather than trillions of almost identical beings now thinking your thoughts and that we exist and remain conscious for more than an instant These facts he claims are presupposed in our practical and moral judgments but they require us to be immaterial things Olson is forced to concede that there is no easy and uncontroversial answer to these objections but doubts whether taking us to be immaterial would be any help The debate takes in large philosophical questions extending well beyond dualism and materialism The book features clear statements of each argument responses to counter arguments in text definitions a glossary of key terms and section summaries Scholars and students alike will find it easy to follow the debate and learn the key concepts from metaphysics philosophy of mind and other areas necessary to understand each position Key Features Is the only introductory book devoted to the debate between substance dualism and materialism Discusses both traditional and novel arguments for each position Debates important but infrequently discussed questions including do we appear in ordinary experience to be material should materialism be the default view is there a good probabilistic argument for materialism Written in a lively and accessible style Uses only a limited number of technical terms and defines all of them in the glossary      Contemporary Literary and Cultural Theory Michael Groden, Martin
