Johnson, 1985 An Annotated Bibliography of Texts on Writing Skills Shannon Burns, 1976 The Interface of Orality and Writing Annette Weissenrieder, Robert B. Coote, 2015-10-13 How did the visual the oral and the written interrelate in antiquity The essays in this collection address the competing and complementary roles of visual media forms of memory oral performance and literacy and popular culture in the ancient Mediterranean world Incorporating both customary and innovative perspectives the essays advance the frontiers of our understanding of the nature of ancient texts as regards audibility and performance the vital importance of the visual in the comprehension of texts and basic concepts of communication particularly the need to account for disjunctive and non reciprocal social relations in communication Thus the contributions show how the investigation of the interface of the oral and written across the spectrum of seeing hearing and writing generates new concepts of media and mediation College Writing Skills Peder Jones, Jay Farness, 2002-10 College Writing Skills uses explanation demonstration and practice to teach skills essential to success in college writing For this course Peder Jones and Jay Farness have constructed a framework of rhetoric work in composing paragraphs and essays around disciplined study of sentences and words The authors have sought in each section of the book to combine the most useful features of contemporary and traditional approaches to college English Their overall aim is to enable the beginning college writer to compose clear and effective sentences paragraphs and compositions This new edition of College Writing Skills is a refinement of the four previous editions it has been shaped by helpful comments from students and instructors who have used the course Exercises have been updated and many minor changes for clarity have been made Basic features of this text have not changed however As a hybrid of textbook and workbook it continues to stress focused practice leading to directed independent composing activities it emphasizes student writing rather than students reading about writing This emphasis translates into more than 500 sets of exercises more than 100 optional workshop activities and an Appendix covering special problems in the acquisition of English The exercises in this textbook embody our belief that practice is crucial to improving one's writing skills Accordingly this text provides practice in forming ideas in getting ideas out of one's head and onto paper in experimenting with various sentence structures in order to achieve clarity in following models of correct grammar and effective style and in making the writing process pay off through effective revision and editing A Collegiate Press book

Developing Multilingual Writing Hiroe Kobayashi, Carol Rinnert, 2023-02-14 With millions of people becoming multilingual writers in the globalized digital world this book helps to empower writers to connect with their readers and project their identities effectively across languages social contexts and genres In a series of closely related studies that build on each other we look comprehensively at how writers develop their ability to construct meaning for different audiences in multiple languages This book which draws on various approaches including a social view of writing multicompetence adaptive transfer complex systems theory motivation and translanguageing contributes to on going efforts to integrate differing approaches to multilingual writing research This book focusses on how writer agency control over text construction audience awareness ability to meet expectations of prospective readers and writer identity projection of image of the writer in the text progress as multilingual writers gain more experience across languages The within writer cross sectional text analysis Chapters 2-5 examines 185 essays written in Japanese and English by eight groups of writers from novice to advanced N 103 supplemented by insights from these writers reflections We explore how they employ three kinds of text features discourse types metadiscourse and self representation which relate to their developing agency audience and writer identity in their text construction and propose a new model for writer voice construction based on those features The four case studies Chapters 6-9 focus on five university students and six professionals to examine closely how individual writers agency audience and identity are interrelated in their text construction in two or three languages and diverse genres including academic and creative writing The combined studies provide new insights into multilingual writing development by revealing the close interrelationship among these three principal aspects of writing across languages They also demonstrate the writers multi directional use of dynamic transfer reuse and reshaping for L1 L2 and L3 text construction and the use of mixed languages L1 L2 or L1 L3 translanguageing for composing processes in addition to the creative power of multilingual writers One significant contribution of this book is to provide models of innovative ways to analyze text and new directions for writing research that go beyond complexity accuracy and fluency Categories and detailed examples of text features used for writer voice construction e g specific characteristics of Personal Emergent and Mature Voice are helpful for writing teachers and for developing writers to improve ways of conveying their own intended writer identity to the reader The studies break new ground by extending our analysis of L2 writing to the same writers L1 and L3 writing and multiple genres Resources in Education ,1998

Patrick Sullivan,2014-07-15 In A New Writing Classroom Patrick Sullivan provides a new generation of teachers a means and a rationale to reconceive their approach to teaching writing calling into question the discipline's dependence on argument Including secondary writing teachers within his purview Sullivan advocates a more diverse exploratory and flexible approach to writing activities in grades six through thirteen A New Writing Classroom encourages teachers to pay more attention to research in learning theory transfer of learning international models for nurturing excellence in the classroom and recent work in listening to teach students the sort of dialogic stance that leads to higher order thinking and more sophisticated communication The conventional argumentative essay is often a simplistic form of argument widely believed to be the most appropriate type of writing in English classes but other kinds of writing may be more valuable to students and offer more important kinds of cognitive challenges Focusing on listening and dispositions or habits of mind as central elements of this new composition pedagogy A New Writing Classroom draws not just on composition studies but also on cognitive psychology philosophy learning theory literature and history making an exciting and significant contribution to the field Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy Nigel Hall,Joanne Larson,Jackie Marsh,2003-10-18 This volume examines early literacy research on a global scale and puts social cultural and historical analyses in the front seat without losing sight of individual and family level matters in the process It is comprehensive ground breaking and provocative and should help literacy researchers to think differently about the field Marjorie Faulstich Orellana School of Education and Social Policy Northwestern University No other publication that I am aware of brings together views from such diverse disciplines contributing to a comprehensive statement about early childhood literacy The Handbook not only reviews the current field of situated literacy but presents some important and exciting new research It is a significant resource that promises to become a landmark text Eve Bearne University of Cambridge Faculty of Education U K This handbook brings together an astonishing array of writers who explore contemporary political cultural and cognitive understandings of early childhood literacy Literacy and literacy acquisition are broadly defined here to encompass not just traditional notions of reading and writing but multimodalities multiliteracies and critical literacies It is rich and comprehensive an invaluable resource for scholars educators and students of early childhood literacy Elsa Auerbach Professor of English University of Massachusetts Boston This book is unique in its broad consideration of topics and its global focus I particularly appreciate how the editors have situated current research in an historical context

They have also included development issues pedagogy research and the newest areas of interest critical literacy and popular culture Diane Barone University of Nevada Reno In recent years there has been a virtual revolution in early childhood studies with a mass of books and papers seeking to re examine and reposition childhood At the same time an equally significant area has developed within literacy studies reflecting a growing interest in the nature of literacy as a socially situated phenomenon There is increased interest in literacy as a multimodal concept in which symbolic meaning is a central concept rather than more conventional and narrower notions of literacy The Handbook of Early Childhood Literacy is central in providing access to all these different perspectives The Handbook offers a way through the vast diversity of publications on early childhood literacy by providing comprehensive and up to date reviews of research and thinking in early childhood literacy The arrangement of chapters reflects a contemporary perspective on research into early childhood literacy Major sections include the global world of early childhood literacy childhood literacy and family community and culture the development of literacy in early childhood pedagogy and early childhood literacy and researching early childhood literacy Contributions by leading authorities focus on literacy as a socially situated and global experience one that is evolving in relation to changes in contemporary culture and technological innovation Author and Journalist ,1922

Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like J rgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies Exploring the Cross-Language Transfer of L1 Rhetorical Knowledge in L2 Writing Xing Wei,2023-12-02 This book addresses the transfer of rhetorical knowledge from a first language L1 to a second language L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer a common cognitive phenomenon in the L2 writing of students in foreign language learning environments It investigates L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer from a cognitive perspective and examines a specific component of L2 writers agency in this transfer namely metacognition The book s ultimate goal is to enhance our understanding of the cognitive mechanism of rhetorical transfer across languages This goal is in turn connected to the need to determine how L1 rhetorical knowledge can be steered and oriented toward successful L2 writing To this end this book proposes a theoretical framework for transfer studies encompassing the dimensions of text transfer agency and L2 essay raters It facilitates an in depth exploration of the intricacies involved in L1 to L2 rhetorical transfer It then presents empirical studies on this transfer Embracing a dynamic perspective this book furthers our understanding of interlingual rhetorical transfer as a conscious or intuitive process for making meaning one that can be monitored and steered Moreover it discusses the pedagogical implications for L2 writing instruction that guides students to use metacognition to transfer L1 rhetorical knowledge during L2 writing The Theory and Practice of Grading Writing Frances Zak,Christopher C.

Weaver,1998-02-05 CHOICE 1998 Outstanding Academic Books Grading is one of the thorniest issues writing teachers must deal with yet surprisingly little has been written on this topic As writing teachers move increasingly toward practices that focus on writing as a process they face a growing need to reconsider their systems of grading to determine whether or not these systems support their pedagogies The authors interrogate the grading of individual papers as well as portfolios and the assigning of end of term grades This collection explores the issues and problems that have emerged as conventional grading practices have lagged behind and been challenged by new theories of language While the book will be of interest to theorists Zak and Weaver have also made the book relevant and useful to teachers whose primary interest is the practical consequences of theory in their classrooms Where theoretical discussion takes place the language is clear and accessible Many of the authors write directly from personal experience telling stories of the classroom or writing of new techniques and approaches they have tried They speak with the voices of teachers and the tone and content of their words convey a sense of the immediacy of the topic British Books in Print ,1979
