Elemental Encounters in the Contemporary Irish Novel Claire McGrail Johnston, 2019-12-19 The underlying premise of this book is that reading is touching Words leap out of their beds and pierce flesh like a knife Storytelling breathes within the dynamic of encounters with air fire earth and water permeated by emotion imagination and touch These ideas are contextualized within ancient community rituals social justice gatherings pedagogical practices and map making The four elements are retrieved from exile as imaginative corporeal and generative substances that operate within stories like medicine bundles Reading becomes a Deleuzian enterprise of health a challenging experience that grasps Paulo Freire's generative themes and is simultaneously thought provoking and valuable The capacious literary space capable of housing this sensual ferment is the novel More verb than noun the novel is an elemental bundle that engages with flesh in all its manifestations This book spotlights Irish novels by John Banville and Mary Morrissy exploring how they revitalise the elements with sensual social and tactile textures Books Ireland, 2005 Publications of the Modern Language Association of America, 2004 Irish Poetry Since 1950 John Goodby, 2000-12-15 Irish Poetry since 1950 is a survey of poetry from Northern Ireland the Republic Britain and the US covering the 1950s the 1960s the early period of the Troubles up to 1976 the 1980s and the 1990s The Best Books: A, Theology. introduction to the fiction of sixteen contemporary writers either brought up or now living in England from Muriel Spark to Jeanette Winterson British Women Writing Fiction presents a balanced view comprising women writing since the 1950s and 1960s those who attracted critical attention during the 1970s and 1980s and those who have burst upon the literary scene more recently including African Caribbean and African women The essays show how all of these writers treat British subjects and themes sometimes from radically different perspectives and how those who are daughters of immigrants see themselves as women writing on the margins of society Abby Werlock's introduction explores the historical and aesthetic factors that have contributed to the genre showing how even those writers who began in a traditional vein have created experimental work The contributors provide complete bibliographies of each writer's works and selected bibliographies of criticism Exceptional both in its breadth of subjects covered and critical approaches taken this book provides essential background that will enable readers to appreciate the singular merits of each writer It offers an approach toward better understanding favorite authors and provides a way to become acquainted with new ones

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
