Sledgehammer Womens Imprisonment At The Millennium:

Analysing Women's Imprisonment Pat Carlen, Anne Worrall, 2013-01-11 In both the UK and the rest of the world there have been rapid increases in the numbers of women in prison which has led to an acceleration of interest in women's crimes and the social control of women and women's experience of both prison and the criminal justice system is very different to men's. This text is concerned to address the key issues relating to women's imprisonment contributing at the same time to an understanding of prison issues in general and the historical and contemporary politics of gender and penal justice. What are women's prisons for? What are they like? Why are lone mothers, ethnic minority and very poor women disproportionately represented in the women's prison population? Should babies be sent to prison with their mothers? These are amongst the issues with which this book is concerned. Analysing Women's Imprisonment is written as an introductory text to the subject aiming to guide students of penology carefully through the main historical and contemporary discourses on women's imprisonment. Each chapter has a clear summary, concepts to know, essay questions and recommendations for further reading and will help students prepare confidently for seminars, course examinations and project work. Vulnerable

Victimizations Phil Mulvey, Shelly L. Clevenger, 2023-09-06 This edited volume showcases research on vulnerable victimizations or more specifically on individuals and/or populations that due to their status have less power in society, are socially controlled in unique ways in the criminal legal system or are members of marginalized groups with specialized considerations surrounding their victimization experiences such as LGBTQIA individuals, immigrants, incarcerated persons, children and females. The scholarship focuses on the overall victimization experience and at the same time is also centered on the victimization experiences of historically ignored and/or marginalized groups. Victimization of vulnerable individuals in the United States is increasing at a moment when marginalized groups continue to confront legislative and policy reforms that would undermine their liberty. It is as important now as it has ever been for the field of victimology to consider those who historically may not have the loudest or any voice to spotlight and investigate their experiences. Vulnerable Victimizations will be a key resource for academics, researchers and advanced students of Victimology, Criminology and Criminal Justice. The chapters included in this book were originally published in Victims Offenders. Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology Keith Hayward, Shadd Maruna, Jayne Mooney, 2009-12-04 Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology brings the history of criminological thought alive through a collection of fascinating life stories. The book covers a range of historical and contemporary thinkers from around the world offering a stimulating combination of biographical fact with historical and cultural context. A rich mix of life and times detail and theoretical reflection is designed to generate further discussion on some of the key contributions that have shaped the field of criminology. Featured profiles include Cesare Beccaria, Nils Christie, Albert Cohen, Carol Smart, W. E. B. DuBois, John Braithwaite. Fifty Key Thinkers in Criminology is an accessible and informative guide that includes helpful cross-referencing and suggestions for further reading. It is of value to all students of criminology and of interest to those in

Women's Imprisonment and the Case for Abolition Linda Moore,Phil Scraton,Azrini Wahidin,2017-11-20 In 2007 the Corston Report recommended a far reaching radical women centred approach to women s imprisonment in England and Wales It suggested a fundamental re thinking about how services to support women in conflict with the law are delivered in custody and in the community recommending the development and implementation of a decarceration strategy This argued for appropriate treatment programmes in the community reserving prison for only those women who commit serious and violent offences Ten years on what progress has been made What is the relationship between Corston s vision and a more radical abolitionist agenda Drawing on a range of international scholarship this book contributes to the critical discourse on the penal system human rights and social injustice revealing the consequences of imprisonment on the lives of women and their families A decade on from Corston s publication it critically reviews her report revealing the slow progress in meeting the reforms it proposed Identifying the significant barriers to change it questions the failure to reverse the unrelenting growth of the women's prison population or to transform state responses to women's offending. Reflecting the global expansion of women's imprisonment particularly marked in advanced democratic societies the chapters include comparative contributions from jurisdictions where Corston's recommendations have relevance. It concludes with a critical appraisal of reformism and the case for penal abolition. Essential for applied and theory courses on prisons, punishment and penology, social justice and the criminology of human rights, gender and crime and feminist criminology.

Gender, Crime and Victimisation Pamela Davies, 2010-11-15

Gender Crime and Victimisation is a thoughtful and thought provoking book exploring gender patterns in both offending and victimisation. It offers a thorough examination of how these patterns in society are variously established and represented, researched, explained and responded to by policy makers and criminal justice agencies. Bringing together key theory, research and policy developments, the book combines perspectives on the study of criminology with those of victimology and gender studies, drawing particularly on the influence of feminism. It analyses processes of criminalisation and social control and their structural biases. It explores fears, anxieties and worries about crime as well as particular vulnerabilities to crime. The book employs a range of learning devices to support the student reader, including:

- o Chapter overviews
- o Case studies and examples
- o Study questions
- o Further reading at the end of each chapter
- o A comprehensive glossary

Comprehensive and robust Gender Crime and Victimisation provides a stimulating and topical overview that will appeal to undergraduates.
