The American Search Crisis Disunion And Reunion:

The ^ANew York Times Disunion Edward L. Widmer,2016-09-13 From 2011 to 2015 the New York Times Op Ed section hosted the Disunion blog an online series launched to commemorate the long string of anniversaries over the five year course of America s most destructive and divisive conflict Celebrated upon publication for their startling originality and uncanny ability to convey immediacy and inspire fresh thought the Disunion pieces were an integral part of the Civil War s sesquicentennial celebrations and indeed came to define them Now for the first time the best essays selected from the entirety of the blog are collected in book form and are presented alongside original introductions Uniting once again Edward L Widmer George Kalogerakis and Clay Risen have curated a unique and unforgettable history of the Civil War from Fort Sumter to Appomattox Crisis, Disunion, and Reunion, 1848-1877 Donald L. Cunningham,2014-06-30 This book analyzes the political culture of the American Sunbelt since the end of World War II It highlights and explains the Sunbelt s emergence during the second half of the twentieth century as the undisputed geographic epicentre for conservative Republican power in the United States However the book also investigates the ongoing nature of political contestation within the postwar Sunbelt often highlighting the underappreciated persistence of liberal and progressive influences across the region Sean P Cunningham argues that the conservative Republican ascendancy that so many have identified as almost synonymous with the rise of the postwar American Sunbelt was hardly an easy unobstructed victory march Rather it was consistently challenged and never preordained The history of American politics in the postwar Sunbelt resembles a roller coaster of partisan and ideological adaptation and transformation Anglican-Methodist Ecumenism Jane Platt,Martin Wellings,2021-12-30 This book offers a detailed analysis of one of the key episodes of twentieth century ecumenism focusing on the efforts made to reconcile the Church of England and the Methodist Church of Great Britain in the years since the First World War Drawing on newly available archives as well as on a broad range of historical theological and liturgical expertise the contributions explore what was attempted why success proved elusive and how the quest for unity was reconfigured into the twenty first century The volume sets contemporary ecumenical ambitions in historical context explains the origins course and aftermath of the

A Contest of Civilizations Andrew F. Lang, 2020-11-24 Most mid nineteenth century Americans regarded the United States as an exceptional democratic republic that stood apart from a world seemingly riddled with revolutionary turmoil and aristocratic consolidation Viewing themselves as distinct from and even superior to other societies Americans considered their nation an unprecedented experiment in political moderation and constitutional democracy But as abolitionism in England economic unrest in Europe and upheaval in the Caribbean and Latin America began to influence domestic affairs the foundational ideas of national identity also faced new questions And with the outbreak of civil war as two rival governments each claimed the mantle of civilized democracy the United States claim to unique standing in the community of nations dissolved into crisis Could the Union chart a distinct course in human affairs when slaveholders abolitionists free people of color and enslaved African Americans all possessed irreconcilable definitions of nationhood In this sweeping history of political ideas Andrew F Lang reappraises the Civil War era as a crisis of American exceptionalism Through this lens Lang shows how the intellectual political and social ramifications of the war and its meaning rippled through the decades that followed not only for the nation s own people but also in the ways the nation sought to redefine its place on the world stage

American Book Publishing Record , 1977-03-31 Here s quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets Public Opinion , 1900 The Southern Middle Class in the Long Nineteenth Century Jonathan Daniel Wells, Jennifer R. Green, 2011-12-12 Jonathan Daniel Wells and Jennifer R Green provide a series of provocative essays reflecting innovative original research on professional and commercial interests in the nineteenth century South a place often seen as being composed of just two classes planters and slaves Rather an active middle class made up of men and women devoted to the cultural and economic modernization of Dixie worked with each other and occasionally their northern counterparts to bring reforms to the region With a balance of established and younger authors of antebellum and postbellum analyses and of narrative and quantitative methodologies these essays offer new ways to think about politics society gender and culture during this exciting era of southern history The contributors show that many like minded southerners sought to create a New South with a society similar to that of the North They supported the creation of public schools and an end to dueling but less progressive reform was also endorsed such as building factories using slave labor rather than white wage earners The Southern Middle Class in the Long Nineteenth Century significantly influences thought on the social structure of the South the centrality of class in history and the events prior to and after the Civil War America, History and Life , 1993 Provides historical coverage of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present Includes information abstracted from over 2 000 journals published worldwide Concord Literary Renaissance Kenneth Walter Cameron, 1988 The Catholic Periodical Index, a Cumulative Author and Subject Index to a Selected List of Catholic Periodicals ,1955
